February 2023 Beefy’s on the Green Recap

We had a great time today at Beefy’s on the Green. Fifteen souls came to tell their stories of the paranormal. Ghosts, alien abductions, shadow people, etc., were listed as just some of the stories that have touched the lives of those present.

A moment of shadow here, a flash of light there, a time distortion unaccounted for, may all be signs of a paranormal event that has touched us and left us bewildered as to what had just happened.

Our Meetings start at 1:00 and last till 4:00, 3 hours, but sometimes, the meetings are so good that people want to stay and continue with the conversations, and the February Meeting met that criteria. About 6 of us continued with the meeting, conversations until a few minutes before 6:00.

Beefy’s on the Green has been really good to us since we started our meetings in February 2019. Four years, can you believe it? Beefy’s has supplied us with food and drink from our first meeting. We all buy our food and drink and bring it upstairs to our meeting room and enjoy a relaxing lunch while talking about our various experiences. We have had clients who have come for a QHHT Session, who, while on their home, decided to stop at Beefy's for a quick lunch/dinner.

If you have had an experience with the paranormal, or just want to hear the stories, see us upstairs at Beefy's on the Green this month, the third Saturday, at 1:00 PM.

DISCLAIMER: As with all those things I put into these newsletters, please use your own discernment. Do your own research to determine if these things are true. Do not accept as truth anything that are in these newsletters without researching it for yourself. I only put information into these newsletters for your starting point of research and articles that I find interesting.

When I die, I want to go peacefully like my Grandpa did, in his sleep — not screaming and yelling, like the passengers in his car.

A Course in Miracles – By Dr. Helen Schucman

Prayer is the medium of miracles. It is a means of communication of the created with the Creator. Through prayer love is received, and through miracles love is expressed.

A sense of separation from God is the only lack you really need correct.

Spirit is in a state of grace forever. Your reality is only spirit. Therefore, you are in a state of grace forever.

Sirius – Eye In The Sky – Just For Fun

Sirius: The brightest star in Earth's night sky

Sirius, also known as the Dog Star or Sirius A, is the brightest star in Earth's night sky. The name means "glowing" in Greek — a fitting description, as only a few planets, the full moon and the International Space Station outshine this star.

Because Sirius is so bright, it was well-known to the ancients. But the discovery of a companion star, Sirius B, in 1862 surprised astronomers. The star that you can see with the naked eye is called Sirius A, or sometimes just Sirius.

Sirius B is 10,000-times dimmer than Sirius, according to NASA (opens in new tab). It's so dim, and therefore so difficult to see from Earth, that astronomers couldn't estimate its mass until 2005, thanks to data from the Hubble Space Telescope.

But is Sirius really the “Eye in the Sky”? If not, then what is?

What's the story behind ... Alan Parsons' Eye in the Sky

The biggest hit in the U.S. by The Alan Parsons Project almost never was released at all. The song Eye in the Sky was a top 10 hit in 1982 so why the near omission?

According to Songfacts.com, Alan Parsons didn't think much of the song and had to be talked into including it on their upcoming album. He reportedly also made a bet with his guitarist that Eye in the Sky would never be a hit. (It would reach No. 3 on the Billboard 100 chart in October 1982.)

As for the song's meaning, there are several theories. One is that the idea of an "eye in the sky" is borrowed from the George Orwell book 1984. However, aside from the song's title, there's seemingly little else in the song to support that theory. The lyrics instead describe the bitterness following the end of a relationship.

In one interview, Parsons said the song's title came from its vocalist and co-writer Eric Woolfson, who spent a lot of time in Las Vegas about that time.

"He had a certain fascination with the hidden cameras that were there watching the tables, taping the games and what have you," Parsons told the interviewer. "It was more than just the hidden cameras. It was also kind of 1984 syndrome. It covers the fact we can never be left to our own devices; we will always be watched."

Carl's Thoughts

Although our meetup group is mostly associated with the paranormal, I still delve into the study of reincarnation to get it fixed in my own mind that reincarnation is either true or it is not true. Having been in the church for seventy years and staying as far away from the Eastern Religions that I can get, I never made the opportunity to study the Eastern Religions or what they had to say about reincarnation, nor will I do so in the future.

The studies that I have completed this week all deal with what the Bible has to say about reincarnation. I found the studies very informative and worthwhile.

My interest in reincarnation began when I first read Dolores Cannon's books dealing with hypnosis and past life regression. Now, there can be no past life unless there is reincarnation, so I began my journey.

Having performed many Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique sessions, (QHHT), I learned that about 98% of my clients do indeed go into a past life. Whether these are true past life experiences or not, the clients did experience something, including myself, and they have experienced healing in their bodies and in their minds.

I've included the following cut and paste articles to maybe show you that all is not as it seems. That we have been lied to.

Does this minimize my belief in Jesus Christ or of God the Father? Absolutely not. There is too much evidence in the Near-Death Experiences, (NDE), to look the other way.

As with my own Extraterrestrial Experiences, ghost sightings, and NDEs, I cannot look at the world and just assume that all is as it seems. There are just too many unanswered questions within my own life and the lives of the people I meet that are influencing everyone and everything.

When I was in Junior High School, I questioned whether or not there were other beings on the other worlds within our solar system. If our eyes are viewing things on a 3-D frequency, could there not be other beings on other worlds that are cloaked so that the 3-D eyes cannot see them and indeed, could not even be aware of their presence? Just thinking.

For more information on reincarnation, please read, "Reincarnation and the Bible".

My Understanding of Reincarnation

My understanding of reincarnation is as the following. Trying to simplify it.

A person is born and lives his/her life. That person then seeks to live a life of purpose and understanding and finds Jesus the Christ. Jesus Christ is the highest example of unconditional love and forgiveness and is the perfect reflection of God the Supreme Creator and Father.

As we follow Christ, we learn and begin to live a life of unconditional love and forgiveness with a knowing that this life is very temporary, and this body has a shelf life. We are on a mission, and when this mission is complete, then we, as Souls, leave the body behind as we are escorted to our life review. The Soul leaving the body does not hurt, there is no pain with the separation.

During our life review, we are questioned as to what we could have done better, followed by many other questions. Then, according to my understanding of all this, is we go to study and prepare for our next incarnation.

During this time of preparing, we determine what lessons in life we want to learn next and then choose the parents and the environment that would best suit the needs for learning the lessons.

Do we choose our parents? Yes. Do we choose the circumstances associated with our next life? Yes. We do not have an argument when we yell out that we did not choose our parents or the life we are living. We chose it all.

Look at yourself. What level of vibration do you see?

It is my understanding that the level we attain when we leave our earthly shell, is dependent upon the vibrations and frequency we have attained at the time of leaving our shell, our bodies. Only by following the example of Jesus Christ are we able to rise to a higher vibration or frequency. Only by looking at Jesus Christ as the perfect example of unconditional love and forgiveness are we able to learn unconditional love and forgiveness.

Unconditional love and forgiveness also mean service to our fellow mankind and to serve others, which indeed is the basis for leadership. Serving.

There may be lessons that we did not want to learn in life. Lessons that are required for us to learn and grow spiritually. We may have come into a life and decided that we didn't want to live our chosen life plan after all and decided to rebel, to act out the displeasures of our circumstances.

This type of rebelling will lower our vibrations and frequency. We may rebel to such an extent that we do not seek Jesus Christ and learn of unconditional love and forgiveness. When that person leaves their shell, their own vibration and frequency will direct them to an area that is best suited for their frequency. Some call this hell. Where there is no connection to others. It gives them the opportunity to consider their present circumstances. Only when they have the presence of mind to call upon Jesus will they be rescued from this hell. All who call upon His name will be saved.

Romans 10:11-13, ¹¹ For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. ¹³ For "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Am I taking this out of context? Or does He not save those who call upon His name?

In early summer of 1979, David Oakford (www.soulbared.com) was 20 years old and having problems dealing with his life situation. His childhood was not designed to enable him to properly deal with life in general. He had no self-esteem and everything he did to find peace within just did not work. He was pretty miserable then and felt lost and unloved. He turned to drugs and alcohol. He needed to find the peace within himself, and he felt it calling him. It was at a party that David had an overdose of drugs and had a near-death experience. His near-death experience is one of the most profound you will ever read. The following is his near-death experience testimony which also appears in Kevin Williams' book Nothing Better Than Death. A more detailed edition of David Oakford's wonderful testimony is published in his book Soul Bared: A Metaphysical Journey which I highly recommend.

1. David's Date with Destiny

I laid down to use the stability of the Earth in an effort to maintain a hold on reality. I knew I had to do that in order to be able to come back down.

The next thing I knew I was riding in my friend's car. I thought we went up north, crossed the Mackinaw Bridge and came back again. We rode past my childhood home, and I saw my parents sitting on the porch.

I felt drawn to the trees. I could see and feel their strength. I saw their roots going deep into the ground. I mean I actually saw the tree roots physically reaching below the ground. I told my friends about the car ride after the experience, and they told me that the only place I went was to the chair they carried me to after I passed out on the porch.

I did wake up in the chair my friends say they put me in a bit later. When I woke up, I could feel the organs in my body working, each one separately as well as all together. I could not see my friends anywhere. I could see in all the rooms of the house at the same time. The stereo was playing the Doors 'Absolutely Live' album, except the volume was way too loud for me. Since I did not see any of my friends around, I got up and tried to turn the music down but could not. No matter what I did the music kept playing. I knew the stereo too. I had a real problem with the noise. It was tearing at me, and I could not figure out why nor could I adjust the volume.

I called out to my friends, and nobody came. I tried to unplug the stereo but that did not work either. Every time I tried to touch the cord to unplug it, I could not grasp it. It just kept on playing 'LA Woman' and the sound rattled my very being.

I ran all over the house calling for my friends, yelling repeatedly that the music was too loud, but I was not heard. I pleaded for the music to be turned down. I tried to go outside but I could not feel the doorknob. I could see the daylight outside but could not go outside. I ended up hiding in the bathroom in an unsuccessful attempt to escape the noise. I looked in the mirror and could not see myself. That frightened me greatly.

I went back into the family room and saw my body sitting in the chair. It looked like I was sleeping. I wondered how I could be looking at myself. I got a bit scared then because I could see me from outside of me, from all different angles except from the inside angle I was used to seeing myself.

I was alone. I was confused and very scared. I tried to get back into my body but could not. I could not touch the ground either. I was floating. I rose up into a spot above my body and kind of just hung there. I could no longer move. I called out for help, and nobody came. I tried to go out the door but like the stereo I could not touch the doorknob. I was scared and alone and did not know what to do. I did not understand what was happening to me.

I asked God to help me. I did believe in God then, but I was kind of angry at him because of the crappy life I was experiencing. I reasoned that if God were really the omnipotent and omniscient being I was taught he was he would not have let me experience the pain I had experienced throughout my life. I thought that if there was a time I needed God, it was now! I was not disappointed with the result of my plea for help.

I looked over by the door to the outside and saw a beautiful being standing there. His feet did not touch the floor. His feet just blended into thin air. He looked both female and male and was young. I could not tell his/her sex. His hair was curly, and he was about my height. He had this glow about him too. The glow was green close to him, then blue, then pure white in the upper areas. He said, 'I am here to help you' but when he spoke his mouth did not move. I did not actually hear him speak with my ears. I felt what he was saying.

When I saw this being and he spoke to me, I was no longer afraid. I actually felt peace and comfort like I had never felt before. I felt the peace I was searching for throughout my entire life. The feeling was very familiar to me, like I had felt it before but not in this life.

This wonderful being called me by a name I do not remember. I told him he must have the wrong guy and that the name he used for me was not my name. He laughed and said that I was a great 'master' and that I had just forgotten who I was. I did not believe him, because I did not really know for sure what a 'master' was then and if I were this great master, I would not have had all the problems I had. I felt that I was an evil being because that is what I was told in my life several times by many.

He told me his name, but I do not remember it. He told me that he had been with me always and told me that he knew that I had a very hard life and that he would help me understand why if I really wanted to. He told me that he would help me remember who I am. He said that he would understand if I did not believe him and offered to prove to me that he knew everything about me.

He told me things that I did when I as a child that proved to me that he was always with me. He told me about things I had only thought about. He told me that I could go anywhere I wanted to go and that he would show me how to do it if I wanted him to. He said that if I needed to come back and see my body I could. My body would be fine because I was still connected to it somehow.

When we spoke to each other we did so telepathically. The expression on his face was a happy one all the time.

I told him that I would like to see the pyramids in Egypt as well as the southwest United States. He told me that all I had to do was trust him, think about where I wanted to go, and we would go. I thought about the pyramids, and we were there in an instant. I do not know why I chose the pyramids, the thought just popped into me, so I went with that. While we were there, he told me some things about the pyramids and Egypt that I do not remember now. I really wish I could remember what he explained while we were there because I do know it was highly significant and had to do with humanity's future.

When we finished in Egypt, we went to the southwest United States but flew there slowly so I could see sights along the way. I wanted to see this planet with the eyes I had then. I saw the countries of the Far East and the Pacific Ocean. Night was falling in the southwest US, and I could see what the being told me was energy emanating from almost everything I could see, especially the plant and animal life. The energy was strongest in the areas of the land and sea that had the least amount of humans.

The energy was the lowest in areas where there were man-made structures, the cities of the world. The energy I saw came from the human beings that lived in the cities. It was explained to me that humans are the basic producers of energy in cities because of their relatively low vibration level the energy is lower in general. I could see the higher sources of energy in the cities though. I was shown people who had higher energy levels and some of them actually talked to the being I was with. I saw dark souls during the time the being and I spent on Gaia. The dark souls were earthbound spirits who refuse to go to the light. They prey on the energies of humans still in human form and try to use those souls to prevent the evolution of spirit. I was told I was protected from these dark ones as long as I chose to focus on the love in me. The dark ones did not even try to affect us, in fact they gave us nasty looks and went away. I was told I would know these dark ones when I see them and I was told to tell them to go to the light. The light is a porthole to the place all souls go if they choose.

I could see energy around the humans too, all different levels and colors. The being explained the human energy to me. He said that the energy coming from humans is what spirits use to evaluate the spiritual condition of particular humans. He said the lighter and more brilliant the color the more advanced the spirit is. He said that seeing the "aura" around a spirit is useful in determining how much a particular spirit needs to work on his development. He said the higher beings know where to go and what to do to help an earthbound soul so they may advance themselves if they so choose. He told me that all souls have this energy, this is why I could see it on every human I saw. He said that I was of the same energy type as he but my vibration is lower when I am in human form and that in time my energy would raise to match his intensity provided I chose to take the initiative to consciously evolve my soul.

He told me that there is much to this planet that spirits can see which humans do not see with their eyes because their vibrations are so low. He showed me life in the trees that I could see as a spirit but could not see in my human form.

He explained that beings of higher vibration do live on Earth but they are not human, they are part of Earth itself. He explained these beings were the caretakers of physical life on the planet. He said that these beings take care of what we call nature. There are beings that take care of the plant life, the mineral life and the waterborne life. These lower echelon beings work together to ensure that all aspects of nature is protected and remains healthy. When the planet was evolving, these ethereal beings were the ones that kept the balance of nature.

He explained to me that the planet that we call Earth really has a proper name. He told me the Earth is really called 'Gaia.' He said Gaia has its own energy and that Gaia is really a true living being. I asked if this energy could be seen and he said that we have to be away from Gaia to appreciate and see it. He said humans are the ones who can manipulate Gaia's energy through their choices. He said if humans choose to live in harmony with the energy on Gaia, it is good for Gaia. He said if humans abuse Gaia, they hurt Gaia by altering its energy structure. I was given an example of how humans have deforested the planet and reduced the energy available faster than it could be replenished. He said Gaia was very strong but has been weakened considerably since humans have chosen to use the resources in a manner inconsistent with the laws of the universe.

I asked him if we could go into space and see Gaia's energy and he said yes. He said there were no limits on where we could go. I concentrated my thought, trusted, and we then went into what is known as space.

Away from this planet I could see Gaia all at once. It was so beautiful. I could see the aura around Gaia. The aura affected me greatly. I felt a deep love for this beautiful place. I could hear Gaia move and was told the sound was the energy flowing in and out of Gaia. My special being told me that Gaia is the most unique planet because it is designed for humans to live on forever. It was created for a spirit to play, learn, and grow. He said the balance of nature on Gaia allows a spirit to be in human form when a spirit lives in harmony with nature.

Nature exists to compensate for the decreased vibration and was created for spirits to adapt enough to adjust and be in the physical human body while still having access to energy that will help them advance. He explained that humans were designed by God to live eternally on Gaia and are not supposed to 'die.' He said that 'dying' is a human created Earth term that means little in the world of spirit. The reason that humans supposedly die is that they have fallen away from the balance of nature and allow themselves to be affected by what they create that violate the natural laws of the universe. He said that humans have fallen away from living in balance with nature. He said they must relearn about the harmonic balance if they want to survive as a race and live on Gaia forever. He said it was still possible for humans to learn about this harmony and that it is the next overall goal of humans on Gaia. I was told that humans would eventually realize they must restore the harmony but great damage will be inflicted before humans will fully realize what they have been doing to Gaia and work to reverse what they have done.

2. Traveling Through the Afterlife Realms

We traveled past all of the planets in our solar system. Near each planet I could hear the energy just like on Gaia. I saw the auras around each one of them too. I saw spirits on all of them as well. My friend told me that all planets are places for spirits to live, learn and thus evolve. I saw great cities on each and every one of those planets. It was explained that other life in the universe is not readily seen because the beings were all of higher vibration and most spirits in human form have yet to attain the higher vibration required to see them.

The being told me that each planet has a theme for learning and that any of them can be chosen by a soul when we are between physical lives. He said we practice on the other planets to be ready to live on Gaia. He said Gaia is the ultimate experience for a soul. It is ultimate because our souls evolve faster here than anywhere else. It was said that the lessons we need to learn are difficult to learn without having a physical form.

He explained how we pick a physical life on Gaia. He explained to me that I picked the parents I was born to so that I could learn what I needed to learn to grow enough to come back and do spirit work on Gaia after I attain a certain level of growth. He said that I was being told all of these things so that I could help souls come together and return Gaia to harmony.

He explained some things to me about God that I do not remember. They had to do with the universe and the size and structure of it. I do remember he said that God is not to be seen for he is everywhere. He told me that God loves Gaia deeply, much as a man loves his wife.

He talked about Jesus too. He told me Jesus was a master God sent to Earth to teach humans how to act toward each other and find their way back to the path of harmony with each other as well as with Gaia.

I was told that Jesus is the being that is entrusted by God to ensure that souls evolve. He said that Jesus is of the highest in vibration than any other soul. He said that God holds Jesus in the highest of favor because he was the best example of what humans need to do. I then got to see Jesus. I saw his light. Jesus' light was the purest I have ever seen. There was no need for words. There were only love feelings that I cannot even begin to describe.

I was told that loving one another is what souls need to do in order for peace and harmony to be the standard on Gaia.

I was told that there is a hierarchy in the universe that is dedicated to preserving the harmony of the universe. I was told that humans are an integral part of this harmony and that the free will we have is a part of souls that allows humans to provide service to the universe.

After he explained those things to me I was able to see our whole solar system all at once in full color. The planets were all in a line and I could see all of them from Pluto to the sun. I felt very blessed and very important. I was given this great gift and I did not really understand why. There I floated, a being that went out his way to inflict pain on other souls, yet I was never asked about what I had done. In fact I was given the honor of being given answers to questions most people wonder about all of their lives.

I thanked this loving being for explaining and showing me what he did. He told me that there was more for him to show me if I was ready to experience it. I told him I was ready. I did not know why I was chosen but I was not about to question why. It just seemed small to me then.

We started to head back toward Gaia. We went to a place in the shadow of Gaia. It was a great city in the clouds. The city had these beautiful white buildings as far as I could see. I saw spirits living there all of which had vibration but no real physical body. These inhabitants went to and from the buildings – going to work and play too. I saw a place where spirits went to get what I thought was water. There were no vehicles there. Spirits seemed to get around the same way my being and I got around, by flying.

The city had no boundaries that I could see. This was a place full of life of all kinds. There was nature there, many pure plants, trees, and water just like on Gaia but more pure. Nature there was absolutely perfect. It was untainted by human manipulation. This place was just like Gaia only without the problems and negativity. I felt that this was what is called heaven in Earth terms.

I saw spirits going to and from the Gaia and the city. I could tell the development of the spirits going to and from by the energy they emanated. I could see that animals came to and from Earth just like humans do. I could see many spirits leave Gaia with guides and could see spirits returning to Gaia without guides. The being told me that some of the spirits passing were the ones that were doing the work with humans on Gaia. I could make out the type of spirits that were doing the work and the spirits that were coming to the great city to become replenished to eventually go back to Gaia to experience and further evolve. I could feel the emotions of the ones coming back for replenishment. I could feel that some of them were sad, beaten and scared, much like I felt before my being came to me.

My being took me into one of the larger buildings. Inside I saw many spirits working. They were doing things similar to jobs on Earth. When we walked by the spirits, they looked at me. I think they were checking me out because of the being I was with.

We went upstairs and I saw spirits that knew me. They greeted me and asked me how I was doing. They gave me advice of which I do not remember. I thought I was going to be given a job there, but the being knew I thought that and told me that there was something I needed to do first.

I was ecstatic. I was in heaven despite everything I had done during my life on Gaia. I was experiencing what most people only dream about. The love I felt there was the same love I felt when I saw Jesus. I had been searching on Gaia for what was really the same place I was in then. I was searching on Gaia for the feeling I was feeling that very moment. I had found what I spent my whole life searching for. I was truly happy. I was home and I knew it. I was ready to stay and do whatever work I was given to do.

My being took me to another building that was special. It was bigger than the rest and had the greenest foliage I had ever seen growing on it, decorating it like a shrine. We went inside a set of double doors that glowed with life. The inside was decorated with a wood paneling that the being told me was “living” wood from the trees that grew at this wonderful place. He led me to some big double doors and told me to wait on this bench while he went inside.

A bit later he came out of the room. He told me to go into the room and said he would wait for me and to not worry. He cautioned me to ensure that I was truthful with the beings in the room. He said they were not judges, rather they were the ones who evaluated a soul’s development based on a soul’s history. He told me to remember who I was and to refrain from fear. I knew I had to leave this being sooner or later but I was glad that he would wait for me. I was a little scared to leave him, but I felt that I was protected and knew that I would be protected here.

3. David’s Profound Life Review and Lessons Learned

I went in and saw a group of several spirits seated at a table. The table was made of the glowing wood and was perfect in every way. The spirits around this table had the highest vibration I had seen so far with the exception of Jesus.

I looked at these beings and recognized them. I do not know where I recognized them from, but they all had a familiarity about them. They just looked at me.

All of a sudden, I saw my parents on Earth before I was born. I saw how they came to be together and watched them have my brother and sister before me. I saw their positive and negative sides and evaluated them according to what I knew I needed to do on Gaia. The beings asked me how and why I picked these particular parents and asked me to tell them. They said I knew how and why I picked them and asked me to tell them why. I do not know where it came from but I did tell them how and why and they agreed with me. I picked them to help them on their path as well as to achieve my learning.

I saw my soul go to my mother and go inside of her. I saw myself being born from an observer standpoint as well as having the actual experience. I proceeded to see my entire life from the observer point of view and from the points of view of those my actions affected. I felt the feelings they felt that directly resulted from things I had done to them. I saw both the positive and the negative things I had done as they had truly happened, nothing was left out or presented inaccurately.

I experienced the harshness of being born again. I experienced leaving heaven and the transit to Gaia. I saw myself as a helpless infant who needed his mother for everything. I experienced my father’s love as well as his anger. I experienced my mothers love, her fear and her anger as well. I saw all of the good and bad from my childhood years and re-experienced what I had done then. I felt all of my emotions and the emotions of the souls I had hurt as well as loved. From all of this I learned that it matters deeply what choices I make on Gaia.

I learned just how powerful we humans are and how we can affect each other in positive and negative ways. It was amazing to see how my innocent actions had such a powerful effect on souls that I had no idea I was affecting. The experience was one that I will never forget. I experienced the whole spectrum of feelings of my life in a relatively short period of time as we humans see it. Where I was, time did not really exist.

I could see how I became what I had become on Gaia and why I became that way. Everything I did in my life affected the evolution of the souls around me. I saw the reasons for all of my actions and understood why I did what I had done. There was a place for all of my positive and negative actions. There was no action that was necessarily wrong, but there were actions I took that did not enhance positive growth. I was both a victim and a beneficiary of my actions. This was not a fun experience to go through. I could see how wonderful it could be if one chose to act to affect other souls positively most of the time.

Afterward, the beings in the room asked me questions about what I saw and how I felt about my life up to then. I knew that I had to provide an honest assessment – I could not lie. I hesitated when they asked me whether I affected others more positively than negatively. I thought about lying.

These beings knew what I was thinking and I had to tell them that I felt that I could have done a better job on Gaia. I knew what I had come to Gaia to accomplish and was well on my way to doing that but I knew I was not finished yet. They agreed and told me that I still had many things to do and that I may want to go back and do them. I was told it was understood how difficult it would be for me but it was necessary for the universe for me to finish.

They said that it may be wise to go back and live my life how I had originally planned it.

They said I had set lofty goals for my life on Gaia and the events in my life were achieving the goals I had set.

They said that I originally came to Gaia to learn and share with others using the gifts that I have accumulated over several lifetimes.

They said that I am needed on Gaia to help souls bring themselves and Gaia back to harmony.

They said that I have great potential to affect other souls, to help them grow and that Gaia is the best place to do that. I was told that the events I had experienced thus far were preparing me to make a large contribution to the universe and that my experiences were not to be considered personal attacks in any way. I did not want to accept that, I wanted to stay, I told them that.

I told them I was tired and wanted to stay because life on Gaia is hard and unforgiving. I felt that going back would be dangerous for the universe because I was not advanced enough in my spiritual evolution. They said that was precisely why it would be in my best interest to go back to Gaia.

They said I was more advanced than I give myself credit for.

They said that it was possible for me to stay but I would need to finish my work on Gaia sooner or later. The type of work I was destined for can only be done on Gaia. I could stay if I chose to but I would only be prolonging the completion of what I needed to do for this universe.

They explained the fastest way to finish my work would be to go back to Gaia as soon as possible.

I was stunned to say the least. I resorted to bargaining but it was no use. I still did not like living on Gaia and did not really want to go back. These beings understood me but remained firm. I had a decision to make that was really the hardest decision I would ever make.

I did come back to Gaia and am now living the life that I was (later in the experience) told I would live. Believe it or not, I ended up shelving this experience away, classifying it as a really vivid "trip." It was not until I evolved more that I realized the gift I was given.

I share this experience now because I feel it can, if so chosen, spur thought and foster choices that affect the planet in a positive way.

If I learned anything from this experience it was that every choice I make is duly recorded, noted and will return later, when I leave here again.

My goal is to save people the pain that I felt in my review and hasten the evolution of humans on Gaia, helping Gaia as well as the universe.

Again, I wish you all of the love I feel in my heart and I give this love to you.

4. Insights from David's NDE

I am one who had a near-death experience and was given a choice to return to this planet in a physical sense again. I chose to return out of love for this planet, a love so great that I would give up the slot I have 'back home.' I did this also in order to help to heal the place through the sharing of what I was shown of the in-between and through the choices I make, (hopefully loving and kind ones).

Without the free will to return I would not be here in the physical doing what I am doing. The physical pain, war, poverty, pestilence, horror, rape, murder, abandonment etc., etc., etc. that is here on this planet is the result of humans coming here and making their free choices in order to learn and evolve. Unfortunately learning does tend to create a mess at times and the physical pain etc. etc. is a part of that mess. It makes sense to me that the same free choice concept is instrumental in cleaning up the mess.

I liken it to camping and choosing to clean up or not clean up the mess one makes. If you choose to clean up your mess, this helps the planet to stay as is because one does not contribute to the mess. If one does not clean up it adds to the mess. If one cleans up their own mess and then some it contributes to healing the planet.

In my near-death experience I was also shown that there are many souls in 'heaven' who are more than willing to come to this place regardless of the state it is in. I was shown that if I did not choose to return I would be in the schools that exist in heaven, working toward the growth I need to accomplish regardless of the form I am in. That was an attractive choice to be sure except that I had a problem with how long it would take me to grow enough to do what my soul wishes to do. (I have a burning desire to experience other places in other universes and to do that I need to grow more.) The prerequisite for that is ensuring that my soul has the IQ for it.

It is my understanding that a soul can choose to remain in heaven and operate on the level he/she (whatever) is on to infinity, but I seek more because I know without doubt that there is more.

At any rate, the idea remains that for this place to start feeling and looking like heaven is to create the love felt there here. I would like to see that on this planet and I know it can be done. If I need to, I will come back here all over again to make it happen.

5. Kevin Williams' Book Review of David's Book

"Soul Bared: A Metaphysical Journey" by David Oakford

This is one of the best books on the near-death experience that I have read! Outstanding and highly Inspirational!

David Oakford's book "Soul Bared: A Metaphysical Journey" describes his journey to find life's meaning which culminated with an extremely profound near-death experience for which he gained deep spiritual insights. His near-death experience is one of a few near-death experiences that has really had a profound impact on my life and I have read thousands of near-death experiences. David's book has greatly enhanced my life and my own journey. I rank David's "Soul Bared" right up there with the great NDE books such as Betty Eadie's "Embraced By The Light" and Dr. George Ritchie's "Return From Tomorrow". David's book stands out even more from these great books because David's "Soul Bared" describes the journey in metaphysical terms which Eadie and Ritchie could not describe in their books. David's journey will greatly enhance and enlighten your own metaphysical journey. You will discover his near-death experience to be one of the most detailed and insightful near-death experiences ever documented. I highly recommend his book for everyone and especially to anyone who has recently lost a loved one. David's "Soul Bared" will speak to your own soul and confirm in your heart and mind that life truly does go on after death and that it is a beautiful experience. David's book is just what is needed for this world. It is a beacon of light shining in a dark world and it couldn't have been published at a more urgent time in human history. David has the secret that can unite this world as one and bring universal unconditional love to all humanity. I believe this book is destined to become a classic and a great source of inspiration to people all over the world. This world certainly needs more love and David's "Soul Bared" contains the formula to shine the light of love in the hearts of all. It is a book whose time has come. It is a message from the very light of heaven. Everyone needs to read this book! — Kevin Williams

PEOPLE OF THE LIE: JUDGE WISELY

For centuries religion and especially Christianity has instructed the people to adhere to a teaching found in the Bible, Matthew 7:1. I quote, "Judge not, that you be not judged" (RSV). This is supposedly a statement attributed to Esu Immanuel (Jesus) in his "Sermon on the Mount" to the people of his time some 2000 years ago. Good Christian people everywhere claim they sincerely believe this statement to be true and that they practice it daily in their lives. Yet, before they walk out the church door on Sunday morning, they are passing judgment upon the choir, the preacher's sermon, their neighbors sitting in the next pew, or even upon their spouse for sleeping in church or their children for mis-behaving from boredom at the preacher's ranting about not judging anyone.

Something does not seem right. Every waking moment we use judgment to put things into perspective, to examine and evaluate our world and the people around us. This is how we find our way. By natural instinct we are constantly judging or discerning everything that happens to us and everyone with whom we have contact. This is the technique by which we make proper choices and direct our life for our greatest good and the good of all. Is it possible that we have a wrong definition?

I went to the The Oxford Dictionary and Thesaurus, American Edition for some answers. I found the following definition:

Judge---estimate, assess, evaluate, appraise.

Judgment—discernment, good sense, discretion.

Discern---perceive clearly with the mind or senses.

Discerning---having or showing good judgment or insight.

From these definitions it is shown that to judge or to discern mean essentially the same thing. How is it possible to go through life without judging or discerning anything? That would be most foolish. Is it possible that we have another problem, other than definitions, with this statement by Esu Immanuel? It is possible that he was mis-quoted or that there was an error in translation or in transcription? In Phoenix Journal #2, And They Called His Name Immanuel: I Am Sananda, p. 41, I found my answer. Twice in this short statement on judgment a word was added, that was not found in the Bible. Matthew 7:1 reads, “Judge not, lest you be judged”. In Esu Immanuel’s (Jesus) own words recorded in 1993 in Phoenix Journal #2 we read, “Judge not falsely, lest you be judged falsely”. At some point in time, perhaps hundreds of years ago, this statement was changed by leaving out the word “falsely”. By so doing the entire meaning of Esu’s teaching was changed to fool the people. We are to judge, but not falsely. We are to judge wisely and honorably. In Phoenix Journal #7, “The Rainbow Masters”, Creator God Aton makes a similar statement on page 13. It says: “Judge you not, lest you be likewise judged. This does not mean that you shall not discern Godliness from Evil. It means that YOU shall not judge the soul of another for you have no means of so doing. If a man breaks the laws of man then his actions must be “judged” --not the soul.”

Esu goes on to explain, “for with whatever judgment you judge, so will you be judged, and with whatever measure you measure, so will you be measured”. Reference is being made here to the Cosmic Law of Returns. If you judge falsely, that creates negative energy, and this negative energy will come back upon you in false judgments against you. You will reap what you sow. Therefore, we can say that to judge wisely and correctly is to create positive energy, which will be returned to us in wise and correct judgments in our favor.

If we are instructed to judge others, by what standard do we judge them? Esu Immanuel continues in his statement in Phoenix Journal #2 to answer that question. He says, “Therefore, judge according to the logic of the Laws of Nature, which are from The Creation, for they alone are true and accurate.”

This statement is then followed by an explanation of the logic of the Laws of Nature, which are from The Creation.

“What do you see but the splinter in your brother’s eye, and are you not aware of the sliver in thine own eye? You hypocrite, first, pull the sliver out from your own eye, and then see how you can pull the splinter out of your brother’s eye. First, learn the Laws of Nature and of The Creation, their logic, before you judge and want to see the mistakes of your fellow man. First, learn through the Laws of Nature and of The Creation your own mistakes, so that you can correct the mistakes of your fellow man”.

In Matthew 7:3 we read “Why do you see the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?” Esu Immanuel used real life examples to make his point. Here he is using the example of having a piece of dirt or a speck of sawdust getting into your eye, making it impossible for you to physically see clearly. A splinter or a sliver or a log all refer to wood and are far larger than a speck of sawdust. If a speck of sawdust obstructs your vision, how much more would a sliver or a log.

In other words Esu is saying, how foolish it is to try and see the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye, when you have a log of wood in your own eye. You most certainly would not be able to see accurately. Now, we must translate this analogy into our understanding of Esu Immanuel’s teaching concerning judging others.

To judge others truly, wisely and accurately we must understand the Laws of God and Creation ourselves and live by them. If we are a liar, how can we rightly judge another who has lied? You say to me, "How can we judge anyone, because we have all lied at some time?" Yes, we may have told a lie in a weak moment, but if we have made it right, forgiven ourselves and asked Creator God and those, whom we may have wronged for forgiveness, we have removed the log from our own eye and can now see clearly the speck or splinter in another's eye. The old saying, "It takes a liar to know one" does carry merit.

If we are a thief, how can we rightly judge a thief? If we honor other gods than Creator God, how do we rightly judge those who honor other gods and not Creator God? If we do not honor our mother and father, how do we rightly judge those who fail to honor their mother and father? If we are a murderer, how do we rightly judge someone who has committed murder? If we are an adulterer, how do we rightly judge another who has committed adultery? If we envy what belongs to our neighbor, how do we wisely judge others who do the same? If we are not responsible and balanced in how we use our bodies in procreation of our species, how do we wisely judge pregnancy outside of marriage, the homosexual or the issue of abortion? Esu Immanuel's point is, if we do not obey the Laws of God and Creation ourselves, how can we accurately judge another against those same laws?

Knowing that no one follows the Laws of God and Creation in perfection, we might conclude that no one should, therefore, judge another. For an answer I again turn to the Phoenix Journals and the commandments of Creator God as presented by Esu Immanuel (Jesus) Sananda in Journal #27. As I have explained in earlier writings, we have been lied to about the Ten Commandments presented in the Bible. These Ten Commandments have been distorted in their presentation and another eight Commandments have been omitted from the Bible. All eighteen Commandments are clearly stated for us to read in Phoenix Journal # 27, Phoenix Operator-Owner Manuel.

I now quote Commandment Twelve from Journal #27 p. 43. "You must not judge others, but you must wisely judge all behaviors and actions which are contrary to the Laws of Balance of God and Creation". The explanation by Esu Immanuel which follows this Commandment is almost an exact quote of the four paragraphs from J #2, p. 41, which we have just considered above, "Judge not falsely, lest ye (you) be judged falsely." To answer our question about judging another, we are commanded by Creator God to judge all behaviors and actions which are contrary to the Laws of Creator God and the Creation.

The first part of Commandment Twelve appears to be contradictory to what Esu said previously. It says, "You must not judge others", but again an explanation by Esu is offered on p. 43.

"No one must ever judge another to be lesser or more than he, especially because the other one is of different color, race, creed or sex (or planet) than be you. But understand this carefully, you must wisely judge the behaviors and actions by anyone including self which you know are against life, meaning against or contrary to the laws which maintain the "balance" created by God within The Creation. And so you must honor all of your brothers and sisters as equal fragments of The One, but you must not accept, tolerate or "allow" behavior or actions to continue in your space, which you know break the laws of balance."

Esu Immanuel concludes his discussion of Commandment Twelve with this ending statement (p. 44):

“But you must not think harshly of another and call him “stupid” or “not worthy”, because he is different in personality and behavior than you are and [you] understand. Each is equal in reflection of God, only different! Celebrate and honor the unique differences of others: they, as are you, are expressing The Father within them in a unique and glorious way. Remember, God allows ignorance of the Laws only to a point, and then He pushes out of the “temple” any of His fragments, who continue with their blatant disregard and honor for Life.”

It should be clear to us from these teachings by Esu Immanuel, that we are to wisely judge others for their actions and behaviors, but not to condemn them as human beings. In fact, recorded in Matthew 7:15-20 (RSV) is a specific teaching that Esu gave to his disciples concerning this same Commandment.

“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles? So, every sound tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears evil fruit. A sound tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus, you will know them by their fruits.”

Truly, my friends, we cannot live our lives in wisdom without judging those around us. When we choose our friends or a business partner or a doctor or hire an employee we carefully judge behaviors and actions. For most people it would be unthinkable to choose a marriage partner without using great analysis, discernment and judgment of the person’s actions and behaviors. In our daily association with people we automatically judge them as we feel their aura and respond to their actions. Those, who are unwise and fail to carefully judge others, choose the wrong friends, the wrong business partners, and even the wrong marriage partners. By so doing they chose unhappy relationships and an unhappy life.

Too long we have been People of the Lie! “Judge not, lest you be judged”, is a lie! By removing one word from the original statement by Esu Immanuel (Jesus), the Bible has presented a distortion of the Truth. By removing the word “falsely” from Esu’s statement the Darkside has reversed the meaning to one that is totally opposite of the original intent. Thus, many people have lived their lives falsely. Christians the world over have tiptoed around true confrontations with evil and have told everyone to not judge anyone. From this passive attitude has come the New Age thinking of “unconditional love”. We are to love everyone and everything they do because they are God’s creations. We are not to judge. Such nonsense!

Let us now move to another Phoenix Journal for clarification of “unconditional love”. Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, author of Volume I of the Pleiades Connection series, Return of the Phoenix” J 30 p. 6 states the following:

“To refresh our memories, let us define “Unconditional Love,” shall we? Unconditional Love is a total acceptance of all entities, whether they be positive or negative without blame, without judgment, without condemnation and without expectation.

Dear ones, it is one thing to “accept” the presence of these entities---it is quite another to continue to allow the actions of the entities to destroy others of God’s Creations, enslave and prostitute the nations as well as the peoples and planet herself. To allow these actions indicates sanction of the actions, and it is upon this misconception of the masses that the would-be-controllers through evil are able to accomplish their heinous deeds!”

By removing the word, “falsely”, from Esu Immanuel’s teaching of 2000 years ago the course of human history has been ever changed. By changing the statement, “Judge not falsely, lest you be judged falsely” to the modern version of “Judge not, lest you be judged”, has led to a passive Christianity and to a society without morals, corrupt governments and the New Age “unconditional love”. The passive and non-judgmental Christian Church has sold its very soul to the Devil. The attitude of never-take-a-stand on any issue was born from the “never judge anyone” lie. This is a comfortable position to take, for if you never judge another for their wrong doing, then you do not need to fear being held accountable for your own wrong doing.

The Christian Church’s last step in succumbing to the Darkside was its act of becoming a government church. By accepting the government’s (U.S.) 501.c3 non-profit corporation tax exempt status, the church placed itself squarely under government control. Though the preacher in the pulpit rarely took a stand against any evil in the market place or public sector because of his non-judgmental stance, now, as a government church, he had a “legitimate” reason for not speaking out against a corrupt society. The church’s money business is now protected from taxation, and one does not “bite the hand that feeds you”.

The New Age “unconditional love” movement of love everyone and everything with no restrictions was born from this same Christian no-judging stance. The Darkside has very successfully led millions of good people into their dark camp of passive acceptance of evil and away from the Laws of Creator God and The Creation. The Darkside has gone so far as to use the practice of judging others for their own benefit in the courts. During jury selection the attorneys often select those people for jury duty who best serve their purposes rather than for their ability to judge the Truth. By judging people and selecting those who would serve their evil intent, the attorneys have totally reversed the intent of Commandment Twelve.

Things have become so corrupt today that, if someone should have the nerve to stand up and point out the wrongs, he is shouted down by our corrupt politicians, corrupt church leaders, and even the mind-controlled Christians and lovey-dovey New Agers. The Laws of God and Creation count for very little.

My friends, I am here to tell you that the Laws of Creator God and of the Creation do count, and that they shall soon become the “Law of the Land”, as we move into our Golden Age on Planet Earth. Those who refuse to adhere to these Laws will not be allowed to participate in Creator God’s Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. Hatonn has said, “You must love your brother and love your enemy, but you must abhor, disdain and despise evil actions (J 30, p. 6)”.

To do so we must understand the Laws of God in Truth. Then we can recognize the lies and the errors that have been put upon us to lead us into darkness. Then it is that we may correct our ways and return to the Light and to right living. When we are able to love the evil man but despise his evil, we will be at the point of graduation into a higher dimension of balance and harmony.

Again, I quote Hatonn (J 30, p. 9). "We must confront the errors in Light of Truth in Love, forgiveness and understanding. Then the reversal shall come and again we can join in the Oneness in return into the wholeness of our Source. Aho!"

He who has ears to hear, may he hear, and eyes to see, may he see! You, who truly seek Truth shall surely find it! We are no longer People of the Lie but People of Truth, when we have learned to "judge wisely", when we judge the person's actions and words but do not condemn him, when we judge actions and words according to the Laws of God and Creation, but do not "judge the soul!" Aho!

PEOPLE OF THE LIE: REINCARNATION

by Patrick H. Bellringer

For centuries man has debated the concept of reincarnation. Reincarnation is the coming again of your God-Spirit or soul within another physical body in another lifetime. To incarnate is to manifest in physical form. We are spiritual beings, who have taken on a physical body to experience in third dimension at this time.

There is no debate over reincarnation, if one believes what Esu (Jesus) Immanuel taught his disciples 2000 years ago. He taught that every human being created by God received a portion or fragment of God's Spirit, which is known as the "soul". To be truly "free" individuals, we were also given a free-will to choose between right and wrong. Without a free-will we would be nothing more than robots or puppets on a string.

Our task as human beings is to learn the Laws of God and the Laws of Creation, and then by free-will choice choose to live them to perfection to become one with God and the Creation.

Every human being has been given the ability to determine right from wrong. This means we, through our conscience, can determine good and evil. With our free-will we can then choose between good and evil. Our goal is to always choose good in order to perfect our God-Spirit(soul) to the point of again becoming one with the Spirit of God and The Creation in perfection and harmony.

To do this we must learn Truth. Truth involves the Laws of God and The Creation. These laws are also known as The Laws of Balance. As we learn to choose wisely good over evil, we learn wisdom. Our goal is to always choose wisely so that we grow in "soul" perfection. Gradually, we learn the Truth of The Laws of Balance and grow in knowledge. As we learn to choose good over evil and follow those laws in daily living, we grow in wisdom, and thus, in soul perfection.

It is impossible for one to gain the knowledge of Truth, to grow in the wisdom of right choices, and to complete all of one's lessons to the point of soul perfection in a single physical lifestream. Therefore, our God-Spirit must return again and again over many lifestreams within human physical form to continue the task of soul perfection. This repeating incarnation of one's soul is one's reincarnation. So, we see that reincarnation is necessary for one to complete the task of our God-Spirit becoming "one" again with God and The Creation.

We have all lived many lifestreams either on Planet Earth or on some other planet. Each time we reincarnate, our soul perfection starts where we left off in the previous lifestream. This point is always determined by our previous lifestream choices. The one major problem we face each time we reincarnate is that we have no memory of our past lifestreams. The physical plane, as we experience it, is a third dimensional plane. At the end of any given lifestream, our soul goes to the astral plane where our memory is restored to us. There we judge ourselves according to the Laws of God and Creation and decide the lessons we have yet to learn. If we have not learned all our lessons in soul perfection, we then return again to the schoolroom of third dimension without memory to learn them.

Our common enemy, Satan, knows about and fully understands the meaning of reincarnation. He knows that this life is but a passing experience and that there is life experience after this one. He, too, has a free-will. He was known as Lucifer of the Lighted Realms, The Bright and Morning Star", and he chose unwisely to attempt to "become God." This caused great imbalance and disharmony within the Lighted Realms, which lowered the frequencies of Lucifer and his dark brotherhood to the point of great discomfort. Thus, he chose to leave the Lighted Realms. After causing much destruction in the cosmos on other planets, he was finally banned by God Aton of Light to live on Planet Earth as his- "jail" planet. Lucifer was then given the name "Satan" by God Aton.

Satan knows, that through the knowledge of the Truth of reincarnation, we will want to perfect our souls in order to move to fifth dimension and leave Planet Earth. Satan does not want that to happen because his goal is to "trick" us into believing his "Lie". He wants us to choose to join his forces of evil, so that one day he can again challenge God! Satan's goal is not only to take control of our world but also of the entire universe. Therefore, Satan has planned carefully to bury Truth and especially the Truth of reincarnation. He can not afford to let us have the knowledge of how to escape his clutches. He needs troops for his army of evil intent.

Most of the people of Esu (Jesus) Immanuel's day chose not to accept his teachings. Esu (Jesus) Immanuel clearly taught reincarnation. From the very beginning Satan's troops, starting with the Pharisees and even the early "Christian" disciples, altered Esu's teachings to suit their own needs. The accepted writings of "Christianity" were collected and canonized at the Council of Nicea in 323 A.D. Esu's teachings on reincarnation remained intact for nearly 500 years. Finally, at the Second Council of Constantinople in 525 A.D., the "canonized" writings of Christianity were sanitized of most references to reincarnation. Thus, Satan skillfully buried the Truth of reincarnation, and the "Christian" church has faithfully perpetrated that "Lie" ever since. Other people have not been so ignorant concerning reincarnation, as is evidenced by the knowledge of the Natives of both India and of North America.

Satan has used Christianity as one of the master plans to deceive us. Christianity has "tricked" us into believing that we do not have to work at soul perfection, but that the blood of their Messiah, one renamed "Jesus Christ", magically removes our "sins". The Satanic myth continues in that those who have been "saved" will at the magic moment be whisked away from this evil place by the "Christ", who comes floating back to Earth in the clouds. Thinking that someone else "does it for you", one makes no progress in soul perfection. The result is for one's soul to stay lifetime after lifetime on the "wheel of reincarnations."

Satan also uses self-punishment to "trick" us. Satan encourages self-punishment for our errors and past sins. The cause of our problem is believing this "Lie". The effect is that we allow our "ego" to be altered. We believe the Anti-Christ (Satan), that we are either inferior or superior to other people. This results in a rejection of our true being; for God has created all human beings equal. This gives us a sense of unworthiness to really be our true self to live freely without such feelings of inferiority or superiority.

Our altered ego feelings of inferiority/superiority may then be expressed in such ways as shame, resentment, helplessness, depression, envy and self-doubt. They may be lust, greed, hatred and jealousy. They may be expressed in impatience which leads to frustration or even in illness and disease which leads to the death-wish of the body. Because we believe in the "Lie" of self-punishment and do not accomplish "soul growth," our immortal God-Spirit again becomes locked into the "wheel of reincarnations", and lifetime after lifetime our soul cycles through human forms with little perfection of the soul.

Reincarnation and soul growth are inseparable. Our rate of soul perfection determines the number of lifestreams necessary to reach perfection and become one with God and Creation. Of all dimensions the third dimension of physical human experience grants us the best lessons for challenge and perfection of our Creative Spirit within. Now is the most fantastic time for soul growth in all the history of Planet Earth. The potential for soul growth is greatest when a celestial planet moves into its fifth dimension. Planet Earth is now at that point in its evolution. Third dimensional human beings must now leave this Earth. We are at the culmination of all of our previous lifestreams on this planet, and we have the greatest potential for soul growth at this time. In the Lighted Realms this opportunity for such potential soul growth occurs only when a planet graduates out of the third dimension.

Soul growth never remains constant, that is, it never stands still. In soul perfection we are constantly moving either forward or backward. If in a given lifestream we choose Truth, in the next lifestream it will be far easier for us to find and choose Truth again. Should we choose the "Lie" of Satan, in the next lifestream it will be far harder for us to find and choose Truth again. It is possible for one to continually regress in soul perfection so that the flickering Light of the soul is all but extinguished. One may be required by his God-Spirit to go back and start over as a "cave man" to work on soul perfection. Should that occur, one could continue as a cave man without memory for thousands of years on the "wheel of reincarnations!"

Reincarnation is Truth. The Earth is nothing more than a schoolroom where we learn our lessons and prepare for our next place and experience. Our destiny is perfection of our God-Spirit--of our Soul within. We must strive for perfect Love that is pure and without conditions, and its fire will burn and cleanse all that is unclean and evil in its path. We must work and grow spiritually or we will "repeat our grades" in another place in another schoolroom until such time that we have learned our lessons.

Reincarnation is probably the most basic tenant of Truth for us to learn at this time, for it answers our questions about our past, our present, and our future. This is why Satan very quickly removed any teaching about reincarnation from Master Teacher, Esu (Jesus) Immanuel's teachings. Reincarnation is an elementary lesson, and unless we fully understand its meaning, we shall have great difficulty with our future lessons in soul growth.

Whether we accept reincarnation as a fact of "Life" or not, most certainly, will determine both our soul progression and our destiny. We are but fragments of the "Whole". By our free-will we decide how quickly we will learn our future lessons in soul perfection and find complete harmony and balance, and again re-join the "One" Creator/God Aton of Light and The Creation and live in complete love and harmony and peace with all of Creation. Ponder this most carefully.

Reflections of My Life - Marmalade

Comment from Maureen Drozda - Powerfully Sad Words Haunting Song...Even When It First Came Out - I Was Young but This Song Was One Of Several That Stuck With Me During The Year My Brother Served In Vietnam. Because Of The High Security Nature Of His Job There - We Weren't Allowed Communications With Him For Most Of It - Or Allowed To Know If He Was OK, Or...What He Had Become Involved In Or...What We Had To Be Prepared To Hear...All His Mail Came Back To Us - Opened - No Answers - No Clues - NOTHING - For That Entire Year! We Didn't Know If He Was Alive Or Where He Had Been Till He - Thankfully - Came Home...The War In Vietnam Left Scars On These Men, On Their Families, On All Who Served There, On The Country, & On The People Of Vietnam That Will Never Fully Heal - THIS CANNOT BE FORGOTTEN! I Hope All Veterans Share What They Know & What They Can Before Departing This World - People DO Care, They Do Want To Know - And They NEED To Hear! And I Thank Them All for Their Service To Our Country!

It is songs like “Reflections of My Life”, that I reflect on what has happened to our world as far as wars are concerned.

I lived in a naïve world growing up. We went to church, school, the movies, and other places. I rode my bike without a bike helmet or knee and elbow pads. I didn't have a cell phone nor computer growing up. I had a television, or rather, we had one television in the living room where we could watch nightly shows, or not.

When I listen to Reflections and other songs of the Vietnam era, I now consider the evil that is in our world. Evil that knows nothing more than money, power and control over our world and the population that lives on this planet, which the Cabal considers theirs and we the people are viewed as trespassers.

I found this article on Banksters and Warmongers that some of you may find interesting. As I read this article, I reflected on all the wars that our country has endured, especially the wars during the time I was growing up, not knowing if I was to be drafted and included in the nightly statistics that Walter Cronkite spoke of each evening during his news broadcast.

Banksters and Warmongers

Auteur: Giorgio Spagnol

Date de publication: 6/7/2019

War is profitable. The Rothschild family have funded the losers and the winners of all wars since the Napoleonic Wars of 1803 to 1815. They fund both sides so that whichever side wins, they profit. In 1815, Napoleon Bonaparte is campaigning against Wellington. Jacob Rothschild, in Paris, funds Napoleon while Nathan Rothschild, in London, funds Wellington. Soon, the family decides that it is more profitable if Britain wins the war as the British royal family is indebted to the Rothschild family: thus, Jacob limits the funds to Napoleon's army.

Knowing that Britain is winning the war, Nathan starts selling off his British bonds in lump sums. Other traders conclude that France must be winning and Britain losing. They also dump their British bonds in large sums. As a result, the price of the bond plummets and becomes very low. Once Nathan sees that the other traders have sold all their bonds, he begins buying them back at ridiculously low prices. When the news reaches the ordinary citizens that Britain has won the war, the value of the British bond rises so high that Nathan makes a huge profit. Ever since, the Rothschild family use their money and power to design the economies of other countries in the world. They also create economic crashes to make a profit out of them, just like they do in Britain in 1815.

The Rothschilds

The family's patriarch, Mayer Amschel Rothschild, is a Jewish financier and a personal banker of the German royals. In the year 1760, he begins a banking business in the city of Frankfurt. Over time, he accumulates a huge fortune.

Amschel has five sons who establish banks in the European cities of Vienna, London, Naples, Paris and Frankfurt. Together, they coordinate the banking activities of all of Europe. They lay the foundations of banking and form close relations with the ruling families in the countries where they establish banks. Practically every member of the Rothschild family is very rich and occupies a position of immense power. This multinational banking family is a byword for wealth, power and discretion.

Their wealth is primarily in the world of banking. However, they have massive investments in other industries such as real estate, oil and construction. They are rumored to control the world through debt and usury and as of today, while withdrawing somewhat from banking, they seem to have put much of their wealth into natural resources and food, two areas of importance in the future in terms of a growing global population, being control of the food supply and energy the next logical steps. Will they keep consolidating power until a new world order is established with the Rothschild as central players with domination of the world's resources?

The Rothschilds and others

The practice initiated by the Rothschilds of having several brothers of a firm establish branches in the different financial centers was followed by other Jewish financiers, like the Bischoffsheims, Pereires, Seligmans, Lazards and others. By this means, Jewish financiers obtained an increasing share of international finance during the middle and last quarter of the 19th century.

Rothschild family banking businesses pioneered international high finance during the industrialization of Europe and were instrumental in supporting railway systems across the world and in financing projects such as the Suez Canal. During the 19th century, the family bought up a large proportion of the property in Mayfair, London. Moreover, the Rothschild family was directly involved in the Independence of Brazil from Portugal in the early 19th century.

The family also funded Cecil Rhodes in the creation of the African colony of Rhodesia and the Japanese government approached the London and Paris families for funding during the Russo-Japanese War.

In late 2010, Baron Benjamin Rothschild said that the family had been unaffected by the financial crisis of 2007–2010, due to their conservative business practices: "We came through it well, because our investment managers did not want to put money into crazy things."

Just hearing the name "Rothschild" conjures up images of unfathomable wealth and power. There is no doubt that the family invented international finance as we know it by introducing concepts such as diversification, rapid communication, confidentiality, and high volume to the world markets.

Nathan Rothschilds did maintain: "I care not what puppet is placed upon the throne of England to rule the Empire on which the sun never sets. The man who controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire, and I control the British money supply."

To get a contemporary idea of the size and influence of the Rothschild family, there would have to be a merger between Morgan Stanley, Merrill Lynch, JP Morgan, Goldman Sachs, and the International Monetary Fund to even approach the size and influence of the money Rothschild owned banks controlled.

There are some people who go so far as to claim that the Rothschilds are already the heads of a "New World Order" that controls the world's central banking system, were behind the 9/11 attacks, financed the communist revolution and own 99% of the world's news and media organizations.

The Rockefellers and the Rothschilds

But let's look briefly at the history of the Rockefeller and Rothschild families and, in doing so, provide a glimpse of what these families did to become so powerful.

Shortly after starting the Standard Oil Company in 1870, John D. Rockefeller became the world's first billionaire. He used his money to help create and fund the Federal Reserve along with the Rothschild, which gave these families the ability to print money out of thin air. This put them well above the U.S. government in terms of power and influence, and this move to gain power over the government and the people via a rigged financial system is a historical event not often discussed in school and in the media.

With oil prices skyrocketing and these families grabbing control of the money supply, Rockefeller quickly had the U.S. government in his pocket. He was free to manipulate society, because he had control over the most worshipped resource: money.

Throughout Rockefeller history, the name has stamped itself deep into the popular psyche through its philanthropy. John D. Rockefeller founded Chicago University and Rockefeller University, as well as the Rockefeller Foundation.

It was his son, John D Rockefeller Junior, who built New York's Rockefeller Centre. Each generation of the Rockefellers kept on building up the current account, while spreading the philanthropic interests. His five sons continued the dynastic pattern.

A philanthropic streak runs through the Rothschilds, too. Jacob Rothschild's home, Waddesdon, in Buckinghamshire now belongs to the National Trust, but he continued to cram it with treasures and endowed the National Gallery generously during his time as chairman of its trustees.

The new union between the two clans does more than weld two vast fortunes to each other by allying a pair of dynasties that have followed the two rules that all mega-plutocrats must obey if they want to be remembered. One: ensure your children feel a duty to preserve the family fortune. And two, paradoxical as it may sound: give as much money as you can to universities, galleries and hospitals.

It is also rumored that the Rothschilds, along with other western bankers and industrialists, financed the rise of Hitler as a bulwark against the Soviets while being interwoven with the Catholic Church, the traditional mafia, the CIA and the Vatican Bank.

How banks benefit from wars

Wars were common, relatively small in scale and had little disruptive economic effects. Financing them however brought substantial business opportunities as well as money transfers across front lines.

Governments need money to get weapons to fight in their wars. Companies need quick amount of cash to buy the resources to create the weapons to fight in the war. Banks are there to give them money. During the Nuremberg trials, the Nazi party admitted that if it had not been for the Swiss banks, they would not have been able to fight for as long.

The United States fought the American Revolution primarily over King George III's Currency Act, which forced the colonists to conduct their business only using printed bank notes borrowed from the Bank of England at interest.

After the revolution, the new United States adopted a radically different economic system in which the government issued its own value-based money, so that private banks like the Bank of England were not siphoning off the wealth of the people through interest-bearing bank notes.

Although World War One started between Austria-Hungary and Serbia, it quickly shifted to focus on Germany, whose industrial capacity was seen as an economic threat to Great Britain. Germany was portrayed as the prime opponent of World War One and eventually was not just defeated, but its industrial base flattened. Following the Treaty of Versailles, Germany was ordered to pay the war costs of all the participating nations, even though Germany had not actually started the war. This amounted to three times the value of all of Germany itself.

As had been the case in World War One, Great Britain and other nations threatened by Germany's economic power looked for an excuse to go to war, and as public anger in Germany grew over the boycott, Hitler foolishly gave them that excuse.

It must be anyway stressed that in 1933 Wall Street bankers and financiers had bankrolled the successful coups by both Hitler and Mussolini. Brown Brothers Harriman in New York was financing Hitler right up to the day war was declared with Germany.

Albert Einstein was of the opinion that the late entry of the US into the war against Germany was because the US was controlled by bankers who were making money off of Hitler.

Modus operandi

The Private Central Banking system, by design, always creates more debt than money with which to pay that debt. Private Central Banking is a set of arbitrary rules created to benefit the owners of the Private Central Bank. The fraud persists, with often lethal results, because the people are tricked into believing that this is the way life is supposed to be and no alternative exists or should be dreamt of. Private Central Banks do not exist to serve the people, the community, or the nation. Private Central Banks exist to serve their owners, to make them richer and richer. Baron M.A. Rothschild did say "Give me control over a nation's currency, and I care not who makes its laws".

Behind wars, lies a single policy of dictatorship. The private central bankers allow rulers to rule only on the condition that the people of a nation be dependent on the private central banks. Failing that, said rulers could be disposed of and their nation invaded by those other nations dependent on private central banks.

So, is the so-called "clash of civilizations" a war between banking systems, with the private central bankers forcing themselves onto the rest of the world, no matter how many people must die for it? This brings us to the current situation in the Ukraine, Russia, and China.

The European Union had been courting the government of the Ukraine to merge with the EU, and more to the point, entangle their economy with the private-owned European Central Bank. The government of the Ukraine was considering the move but had made no commitments. Part of their concern laid with the conditions in other EU nations dependent on the ECB, notably Cyprus, Greece, Spain, and Italy. So they were cautious.

Then Russia stepped in with a better deal and the Ukraine dropped the EU and announced they were going to go with Russia's offer. It was at that point that agents provocateurs flooded into the Ukraine, covertly funded by CIA stirring up trouble, while the western media proclaimed this was a popular revolution.

This is a classic pattern of covert overthrow we have seen many times before. Since the end of WW2, the US has covertly tried to overthrow the governments of 56 nations, succeeding 25 times.

Examples include the 1953 overthrow of Iran's elected government of Mohammed Mossadegh and the imposition of the Shah, the 1973 overthrow of Chile's elected government of Salvador Allende and the imposition of the Pinochet dictatorship, and of course, the recent overthrow of Ukraine's elected government of Yanukovich and the imposition of the current unelected government, which is already gutting the Ukraine's wealth to hand it to the western bankers.

Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa have formed a parallel financial system called "BRICS Pay" with 80 nations ready to trade with BRICS in transactions that do not involve the US dollar. Despite US economic warfare against both Russia and China, the Ruble and Yuan are seen as more attractive for international trade and banking than the US dollar, hence the US attempt to fan the Ukraine crisis into war with Russia and attempts to provoke North Korea as a back door to war with China.

Considerations

The idea of banks began as long ago as 1,800 BC in Babylon. In those days moneylenders made loans to people. In Greece and Rome banks made loans and accepted deposits. They also changed money. However, with the collapse of the Roman Empire trade slumped and banks temporarily vanished. However, banking began to revive again in the 12th and 13th centuries in the Italian towns of Florence and Genoa. In the 16th century a German family called the Fuggers from Augsburg became very important bankers.

Nowadays, virtually unknown to the US general public is the fact that the US Federal Reserve is a privately owned company, sitting on its very own patch of land, immune to the US laws. This privately owned company (controlled by the Rothschilds, Rockefellers and Morgans) prints the money for the US Government, which pays them a remarkable interest for the "favor."

In 1835, US President Andrew Jackson declared his disdain for the international bankers: "You are a den of vipers. I intend to rout you out. If the people only understood the injustice of our money and banking system, there would be a revolution before morning."

There followed an unsuccessful assassination attempt on President Jackson's life. This was the beginning of a pattern of intrigue that would plague the White House itself over the coming decades. Both Lincoln and JFK tried to rid the country of banksters and have been murdered.

Flag waving and propaganda aside, all modern wars are wars by and for the private bankers, fought and bled for by third parties unaware of their true reason. The process is quite simple. As soon as the Private Central Bank issues its currency as a loan at interest, the public is forced deeper and deeper into debt.

When the people are reluctant to borrow any more, that is when the Keynesian economists demand the government borrow more to keep the pyramid scheme working. When both the people and government refuse to borrow any more, that is when wars are started, to plunge everyone even deeper into debt to pay for the war, then after the war to borrow more to rebuild. When the war is over, everyone is in debt to the private bankers for the next century.

Conclusion

I would like to conclude with the famous boastful statement of Nathaniel Meyer Rothschild, speaking to a group of international bankers in 1912: "The few who could understand the system (cheque, money, credits) will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantage that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint, and perhaps without even suspecting the system is inimical to their interests."

Mayer Amschel Rothschild, John D. Rockefeller and J. P. Morgan have waited nearly two centuries to see their dreams fulfilled. Such patience has made their families successful by steadfastly maintaining the rules of the game as set down by their founders. After citing Rothschild, it might be worthwhile to add a pair of meaningful sayings attributed to J. P. Morgan: "If you have to ask how much it costs, you can't afford it" and to John D. Rockefeller: "The way to make money is to buy when blood is running in the streets".

Wars upon wars are created with the single target to make more money and have more power. Only war can make great profits. Thus, out of the financial boardrooms, WWI, WWII, the Korean war, Vietnam war, Cold War, Iran-Iraq war, Balkan war, Libyan war and the Middle East wars were created.

In the last decade as part of WWIII the financial boardrooms brought a monetary collapse with money not worth the paper it was printed on.

So there we are with banksters, who can never have enough, getting more dictatorial power by the day and not caring for the rest of the world.

As long as Private Central Banks are allowed to exist, there will be poverty, hopelessness, and wars: the path to peace on Earth lies in the abolishment of all private central banking everywhere, and a return to the state-issued value-based currencies that allow nations and people to become prosperous and to decide their own destiny. Unless we want ourselves being pushed over the cliff, we must wake up from our slumber and take our lives in our own hands and get back to a normal peaceful life.

Sometimes, from time to time, we all experience something from the unknown. Our God knows, but we have not a clue as to what it was, and it bewilders us and forces us to do a reality check. We also find that we want to tell someone, anyone, maybe. But who? Do you have a story you want to tell, but do not want to be put on the front stage with all eyes looking at you? Do you get nervous meeting new friends and are fearful that they may think you to be strange and not all “there?” If you would like, please email me with your story. I will read it to see if it has interest for our readers, I may check for spelling and grammar then post it in our newsletter. I can leave your name off if you would like. But I want to hear from our readers.

QHHT Sessions - Top

If you are interested in doing a QHHT session, my current fee is $300 for the entire session. I only do one session per day so that there will be no rush to finish a session before it's natural completion. You will also find that my fees are at the low end of the scale among QHHT® practitioners, to make it more affordable. I'll send you some paperwork to be filled out when we schedule the appointment, then I may send a reminder one or two days prior to the session that will also include my address here in Spring Branch, Texas. Bring the paperwork with you and we can go over it when you get here. A belief in reincarnation is not a requirement for a QHHT® session. Your unconscious mind will take you to the most appropriate time and place in which your questions will be answered.

If you need to call or text me, to ask more questions, I will be more than happy to answer any questions you may have. If the call goes to voice mail, I will call back as soon as I am able. I am retired and hypnosis is the only “work” that I do, so if you need to call or text, do not hesitate. The session can last four to seven hours. This includes a two-hour discussion and a review of the questions you bring with you that you want your unconscious mind to answer, a one-to-two-hour hypnotic session that may include one to three past lives, answers to your questions by your unconscious mind, and a body scan by your unconscious mind. The session is videoed, and an audio file of the session is sent to you via Drop Box.

ABOUT - Top

This newsletter started out as a way to encourage others to meet and tell others of their paranormal experiences. I’ve also included a lot of my own experiences in the previous newsletters, but now, I believe it is time to include other subjects that will help a person to grow and heal, not only in the mind, but also in the body. After all, isn’t that what we all want, to have a healthy mind, body and spirit?

As I research the various topics that I find interesting, I will occasionally dip down into rabbit holes and find nuggets that were completely unexpected. Attending “The Healing Arts Festival & Market”, I also see where people are seeking alternative sources of healing rather than the allopathic medicine in which we have begun to shy away from due to the contraindications associated with their treatments when using questionable pharmaceuticals.

I have found, in my readings, therapies that include frequency, vibration and energy as well as red light therapy. Frequency could be associated with light and sound, as in the Singing Bowls that one may find at the Healing Arts Festival & Market. So, please expect more, and if you believe that I have veered off track and need to come back to center, please let me know. Feedback does help.
