January 18, 2023 - Newsletter

These are unusual times. It is more than just the bumps in the night that keep us awake, but, also, those things over which we have no control. See you January 21, 2023, at Beefy’s on the Green, in our forever Search for The Truth.

Don’t forget our MUFON meeting. See here for details.

Beefy’s on the Green Venue

Are you curious, or do you have a story you would like to share? Come join us at “Beefy’s on the Green,” Saturday, January 21st at 1:00 PM. The location is at the corner of HWY 281N and Rebecca Creek Road, in Spring Branch, Texas. You cannot miss it; it has a very large golf ball in the front.

This is a safe place to tell your stories, of the paranormal, without fear of rebukes or ridicule from others. Everybody has gone through something, whether it has been UFO sightings or alien abductions, shadow people coming in the night, or ghosts in the house watching you sleep. This is happening all over the world and in your world. Your friends and family, 18 years of age and older, are welcome, bring them.

Our scheduled times for our Beefy’s on the Green meeting will be the 3rd Saturday of each month. Please mark your calendars.

When you buy a meal from Beefy's, let them know that you are going to the meeting upstairs. This helps lower the cost of the room.

If you are not receiving my newsletter and want to receive it each month, please go to www.texasmetaphysics.com and sign up, or email me at carl@cakama.com. This is especially true for our Meetup Group as I do not have a way to get the full text of the newsletter to you except through my website.

Beliefs can create an imprisoned mind. – Gil Boyne

“Don’t speak negatively about yourself, even as a joke. Your body doesn’t know the difference. Words are energy.”

"We already have the means to travel among the stars, but these technologies are locked up in black projects and it would take an act of God to ever get them out to benefit humanity.... Anything you can imagine; we already know how to do."

Ben Rich, former Head of the Lockheed Skunk Works, in a lecture shortly before he died

"I printed all the information... and provided [the retired USAF Colonel] a copy... I watched his eyes and facial expressions. After he was finished, he stated, 'Oh my God, who on this Earth would release such classified material?' I then asked him if all this information was real. His simple answer was, 'Yes, all real'."

Happy New Year – 2023

Another year with friends and family. Another year of paranormal activities that seem to come into focus occasionally, perplexing us as we struggle to make sense of what we have just seen or experienced.

During our Meeting in December, we had a few new people come to tell their stories of the paranormal and to give input to the experiences of the people who told their stories. It was a very good meeting.

Remote Hypnosis Sessions

I do not make any money when someone clicks on the links, and or buys a book. The only money I make is from doing hypnosis or the Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique (QHHT).

In the past, I have done two remote sessions over Zoom and one over the cell phone. All three sessions were very successful, and the clients benefitted from the sessions. There are many practitioners that I have seen doing hypnosis sessions remotely and I have been asked to do the sessions remotely, which I turned down due to my training.

When I took the Quantum Healing Hypnosis Technique class (QHHT) with Dolores Cannon, many years ago, and the Ericksonian Hypnosis Classes with Mike Mandel, both instructors advised to not do hypnosis over any electronic means, cell phone, Zoom, or Skype. However, I also took Candace Craw-Goldman's course Beyond Quantum Healing (BQH) who has no limitations on remote sessions. She was a student of Dolores Cannon's, her first Level 3 Practitioner. The times are changing.

Recently, I took another class from Mike Mandel on HOW to do remote hypnosis sessions over Zoom or Skype. The classes were very informative and straight forward. Based on the classes I've taken; I will resume doing hypnosis sessions remotely.

Mike Mandel is not the only one who now considers remote sessions as a viable alternative to in house sessions, but so also is Candace Craw-Goldman with Beyond Quantum Healing (BQH), Dolores Cannon's first Level 3 QHHT Practitioner. In-Person vs Remote Sessions.

In January 2023 I'll begin doing the remote sessions. Contact me if you have an interest.

In-Person vs Remote Sessions By - Christine Shanesy-Kooper

My dear friend, mentor, and creator of BQH Candace Craw-Goldman of QuantumHealers.com, shared a story today that touched me on how her modality, Beyond Quantum Healing (BQH) was born out of her many years of working with Quantum Healing and working alongside Dolores Cannon, who most know, developed Quantum Healing Hypnosis Therapy (QHHT®) many years ago.

I was first trained in QHHT® and it was a few years later I qualified as a BQH practitioner.

I often find it difficult to explain to people the difference between these two modalities. It's not that I don't understand or feel the differences myself but more so, I find that sometimes, I get hung up in trying to find the right words that I think the average person will understand.

How do I find the right words to express that while both types of Quantum Healing modalities are powerful methods in helping someone connect to their Higher Power, they each take very different paths to that same destination? Perhaps I'm being guided to write this article so that I can indeed find the right words.

As a society, we have been taught that in order to accomplish XYZ, you must do XYZ. We see this throughout our lives and as a child, if we were after something specific, we knew we had to do or act a certain way to get it. In college, we had to select certain studies to achieve the degree we sought. As adults, we know we must go to work and perform certain tasks in order to earn a paycheck. We study, plan, strategize and take specific actions to reach these, as well as in other destinations.

We've become reliant on processes, and we bring these patterns and beliefs into our spiritual growth and spiritual practices as well. We believe that in order to achieve anything of a spiritual nature, we must have and follow a process.

We've never been taught that we don't need knowledge, words, certain steps or even specific items in order to achieve our spiritual goals. I cannot begin to tell you how many times I have felt unable to connect to my own higher power because I lacked the right atmosphere such as a meditation room.

I can recall a friend who was beside herself in trying to find the right process to clear her chakras and was set on believing that until she found it, her chakras would remain a mess. So there are many parameters we put on ourselves and when we don't or cannot have those defined requirements in place, we become a victim by our own doing, our own patterned beliefs. Is it any wonder why so many Light Workers shy away from stepping into their new roles out of fear and that they're not enough just as they are?

QHHT® has several requirements but the only one I am going to speak about is that they must be done in person. I mention this one only because from my own personal experience, it's the one and only 'rule' that my prospective clients get hung up on.

There are many reasons why Dolores Cannon made the decision when formulating her QHHT® process at that time; this and other reasons were seemingly quite valid, for that time. When the concept of working with energy in such an 'out of the box' way, it must have felt foreign and was filled with "what if's" which meant working online simply wasn't considered. We didn't realize back then how disempowering this really was – to believe that the only way to facilitate Quantum Healing, to work with energy and to support another, one must be in the same room as each other.

BQH is rightfully named Beyond Quantum Healing because it goes beyond what we once believed. It shows us that one can indeed work with energy and support others without having to be next to each other; that facilitating Quantum Healing remotely online is not only possible but is in fact in support of the newer and more empowered mindset of today. Energy is far more powerful and flexible than we previously thought – in fact, no matter how much you try, there are no boundaries that can ever be put on energy. It's limitless and it's everywhere.

We're seeing 'rules' be broken that were once so rigid. We're evolving and we're waking up to the truth that we really don't need more processes and rules but instead, we simply need to go within and know the truth of our God-like abilities and powers. As Creators, we are creating new rules that say, there are no rules; there are no limits. As Dolores Cannon said herself so beautifully, “the only limitations we have are those that we put on ourselves.”

I can't help but remember the time when I was first starting on my path of becoming a healer. I was reading a "how to" book on channeling, and I had myself convinced that once done, I would be 'rewarded' with seeing an angel with my human eyes. I thought as long as I followed the steps, then XYZ would happen. That's what the book said after all. Then one day someone asked me, “what happens after you are done and you still don't see angels?”

It hadn't occurred to me that it might not happen the way I had it all planned out. I fell to my knees and cried my heart out because I believed that I wouldn't be able to achieve any spiritual gifts or heights, or even work with energy at all unless I had the magic process. And that it most certainly wasn't already within me. I never did finish that book.

It's fascinating to look back and modalities evolve, and thanks to spiritual modalities such as BQH doors are being opened that were once closed and 'new' concepts are empowering those that once felt they 'required' certain steps, knowledge or experience before they could embrace and trust themselves. For me, I'm thrilled that I can travel both paths of Quantum Healing, in person and remote sessions. In the end, that's really all they are – simply different paths leading to the same result.

Don't you just love learning???

By Carl Marshall

High school graduation. College graduation! Master's degrees!! Doctorates Degree or degrees!!! “Now, I've finally learned it all. I know everything.”, says the neophyte.

Bible school, church, class discussions. Now, since I know everything that the bible says, I have no need to look beyond it's covers.

Aliens, alien abductions, reincarnation, past lives. Wait! This cannot be happening. I've learned everything I'm supposed to know as a Christian, the Bible tells me so. Those things cannot be true. I thought if I knew everything in the Bible, I was done with learning and anything that didn't agree with what I knew, was a false teaching.

Little do you not know, Grasshopper, after all the learning has been completed, the real education now begins with living the real life. You do have a choice, you can either stay in your little box and contemplate your learning, over and over again; or you can bust out of your box and reach out and grasp the real education that you have so violently fought against because it did not support your treasured notions of what was true.

Education has so many pitfalls. What is true? What is false? Do we take one truth and forsake all the other truths as being false? What if the first truth was incomplete? What if the translation was wrong? Do we still accept it as truth just because our ancestors believed it to be true? Ultimately, we are responsible with the knowledge we have acquired throughout our lifetime.

The first Adam was placed in a garden to tend the garden. Tending the garden means digging. Digging out the weeds and everything that is not supposed to be there. Are we any less than the first farmer when we dig out the falsehoods from the truth so that then, we realize that the truth has been before us all this time?

I mentioned aliens and alien abductions at the beginning of this article. Growing up in the religious organization that my parents brought me up in, I was taught so many things that I am now compelled to relearn. My church did not believe in UFOs or "little green men from Mars". They believed that the Lord God created life here, only on this Earth. However, I did learn of certain men in our congregation, in Houston, that differed with that belief, including myself, although I did keep my thoughts to myself of the alien abductions that I have encountered and the aliens that I have seen face-to-face.

Reincarnation and past lives are another set of subjects that would have been totally disregarded in any bible classroom study. Study it? What for? The bible clearly says that after the death comes the judgement.

Hebrews 9:27-28, "27And just as it is destined for people to die once, and after this comes judgment, 28so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him."

I bring this up because I have to ask the question, in this context, what does judgement mean? What does "...for people to die once..." mean in this context? When a person dies and then has a life review (judgement), then reincarnates, does that violate the scripture for the newly reincarnated? For the newly reincarnated will also die, once. People who have had near death experiences, including the clients I have had who were regressed to a time between lives, have spoken about a panel of advisors who did not judge, but were there for their past life review, "What did you learn?" "What could you have done better?" They ask questions to the soul about what they have learned in the life that has just passed, what was important.

In my years of doing past life regressions, when I asked the client, who is still in a hypnotic trace and has just passed over into the spirit realm, I will ask them what they learned in the life that was just reviewed. Invariably, the answer was not how to make more money or to have more power, but it was how they loved, how important their family was, how they learned to be more loving toward others.

So, when I look at what the “church” has taught me, and what I have learned in this life, I believe the experiences that I have encountered, the UFOs and aliens I have seen, the alien abductions, the ghosts and shadow people, the memories of past lives and what they have taught me. I do not need an organization to be my intercessor between my God and the Lord Jesus Christ to embroil me to return to their dogma.

I will continue to make mistakes as I journey through this life. But my prayer is that the Lord leads me and will be a faithful follower of His.

Since I was a Junior High School Student, I’ve read John 10:16 many times and I always wondered just what it meant. Here, I’ll copy the context of the verse with emphasis on verse 16.

11“I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. 12He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf snatches them and scatters the flock. 13He flees* because he is a hired hand and does not care about the sheep. 14I am the good shepherd, and I know My own, and My own know Me, 15just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. 16And I have other sheep that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will listen to My voice; and they will become one flock, with one shepherd.* 17For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life so that I may take it back. 18No one has taken it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it back. This commandment I received from My Father.”

Okay, since high school, I’ve regarded this statement as being about the Extraterrestrials. I do not know if that is true or not, however, Jesus is emphatic in His statement that “...and they will listen to my voice...” Even as Christians, we do not listen to His voice as we were meant to do so. But His other sheep, they will listen to His voice. So, who are they? What is the fold? Is it this earth? Will all the fold of the earth and the extraterrestrials become one flock?

Interesting, is it not?

What is Sound?

Nikola Tesla: "GOD LIVES HERE" \(The full explanation\) – 13:52

In Genesis 1:3, the Lord God said let there be light. This is at the beginning of creation. He didn't wave His hand and gesture to create light or water or the animals, etc. He SAID, "Let there be..."

In the words Nickola Tesla, he said IF you want to understand the universe, understand energy, frequency and vibration. What is sound but energy, frequency, and vibration?

Raymond E. Fowler

Raymond E. Fowler served as Director of Scientific Investigations for MUFON and author of an older edition of the MUFON Field Investigators Manual. He was also the author of several other books, including his research on Betty Andreasson's alien abduction.

When I joined MUFON several years ago, it was because I had seen a couple of UFOs in the night sky, travelling from the west towards the east. They were travelling together. When they got over my head, one turned south and the other turned north, like they were surveying something, or marking something. There was no indication of them turning, just suddenly they turned.

MUFON is an organization that performs scientific analysis and investigations on sightings of UAPs or UFOs. Many times, I have said that the UFO phenomena is more than a physical quantity, it is also paranormal reality. Now, Raymond E. Fowler, the past Director of Scientific Investigation for MUFON, from his book, UFOs – The Ultimate Abduction:

From the Forward by Reinerio \(Rey\) Hernandez – JD, MCP, Ph.D. Candidate, University of California at Berkeley

Who is Reinerio \(Rey\) Hernandez? He is the one who authored the forward to Raymond Fowler's book "UFOS: The Ultimate Abduction".

Reinerio (Rey) Hernandez is one of the four co-founders of FREE (The Dr. Edgar Mitchell Foundation for Research into Extraterrestrial Encounters). The other three co-founders include the late Dr. Edgar Mitchell; Dr. Rudy Schild, an Emeritus Professor of Astrophysics at Harvard University; and Mary Rodwell, a leading Australian UFO and Contact phenomenon researcher. Rey and his entire family have experienced conscious physical contact with non-human intelligence in their family home. All of the family members have also had various contact experiences with large UFOs. In one instance, a football stadium-sized craft only 30 feet from Rey, his daughter, and three adult witnesses, hovered over them in silence for more than forty-five minutes. His family has also had numerous paranormal experiences beginning in March of 2012. Before these experiences, Rey was ignorant of UFOs, ET Contact and the paranormal, and identified as an atheist and material rationalist. He is now a deeply spiritual person who has been completely transformed by his experiences.

Rey graduated with honors from Rutgers College, was a Masters Candidate at Cornell University and was a Ph.D. Candidate at the University of California at Berkeley where he was the recipient of a National Science Foundation Ph.D. Fellowship. He previously was a Professor for six years at the New School for Social Research and at the City University of New York. He is currently an attorney with the US Dept of Treasury in New York City.

Previous to March 2012, Rey had zero interest in the topics of Consciousness or any of the so-called paranormal Contact Modalities. On March 4, 2012, Rey and his wife personally witness a miraculous medical healing of their paralyzed dog, who they were going to euthanize that same day, by an Energy Being that appeared in their living room. After seeing large UFOs randomly appear to them, they later began to call down large UAPs, some appearing at a distance of less than 30 feet. Over the next 3 years Rey began to have a series of non-stop paranormal experiences. Since then, Rey, and a team of Ph.D. academics and medical doctors, have dedicated their lives to studying the relationship between Consciousness and the Contact modalities.

From the Forward -

First, initially 37% of the UFO related Contact Experiences viewed their experiences as negative, but over time, after many additional experiences, approximately 96% now viewed their experience as positive.

Secondly, as famed NDE research academic Dr. Kenneth Ring has repeatedly stated in many of his books, which Raymond frequently cites in this book, both the UFO and NDE Contact Experience results in a remarkable and profound positive transformation of the world-view of the Experiencer of these two contact phenomena – these individuals became more spiritual, less materialistic, do not fear death, became more loving, became very interested in ecological matters, and became consciously aware of a mission and purpose of their lives. These were just a few of the more than 60 areas where these Experiencers changed their world view.

Thirdly, the UFO contact phenomenon was primarily a paranormal/psychic phenomenon. This conclusion was alluded to in the works of many Ufologists J. Allen Hynek, Dr. Jacques Vallee, Harvard MD John Mack, and also Raymond Fowler. Even though many materialist “nuts and bolts” Ufology researchers insist that the UFO contact phenomenon does not involve the paranormal, our data unequivocally reveals that these Experiencers are having primarily paranormal instead of purely physical experiences.

Finally, the UFO contact phenomenon involves a manipulation of space-time, just OBEs, NDEs, Remote Viewing, Ghosts/Spirits, and other types of contact experiences with Non-Human intelligence which F.R.E.E. has termed the “Contact Modalities”. Again, the field of mainstream nuts and bolts materialist Ufology refuses to accept this fact.

It is to be understood, that at our monthly meetings, I include all paranormal to be included with the UFO, alien abduction experience. Some of these vehicles may be nuts and bolts, but may also be interdimensional or spiritual or living entities in their own right.

One of the most documented and believable cases in UFOlogy is the experience of one woman’s abduction aboard a UFO. Her name is Betty Andreasson Luca who is a devout Christian. During her abduction, she was taken before a being of intense light and love called “the One.” This description of this being is remarkably similar to descriptions of the so-called “Being of Light” encountered in near-death experiences. Her first abduction occurred during her childhood and culminated with an abduction experience that involved her whole family. Led by a number of teams of highly credentialed investigators, her experience is one of the most thoroughly investigated cases ever reported in the annals of hypnotherapy. This article is mainly focused on her experience as a child with the Being of Light she calls “the One.” It includes excerpts from Raymond Fowler’s book, The Andreasson Affair: The Documented Investigation of a Woman’s Abduction Aboard a UFO (1980). Raymond Fowler is also the author of the follow-up books: (1) The Andreasson Affair: Phase Two (1982); (2) The Watchers: The Secret Design Behind UFO Abduction (1990); (3) The Watchers II: Exploring UFOs and the Near-Death Experience (1995); (4) The Andreasson Legacy: UFOs and the Paranormal (1997).

For even more information about the connection between the NDE and UFO phenomenon, read the article by Dr. Kenneth Ring entitled Near-Death and UFO Encounters as Shamanic Initiations: Some Conceptual and Evolutionary Implications.

Concerning the existence of UFOs, the late Dr. Edgar Mitchell, an Apollo 14 astronaut who was the sixth man to walk on the moon, had the following to say about the subject from a taped interview:

“[The U.S. Government] hasn’t maintained [secrecy regarding UFOs] It’s been leaking out all over the place. But the way it’s been handled is by denial, by denying the truth of the documents that have leaked. By attempting to show them as fraudulent, as bogus of some sort. There has been a very large disinformation and misinformation effort around this whole area. And one must wonder, how better to hide something out in the open than just to say, ‘It isn’t there. You’re deceiving yourself if you think this is true.’ And yet, there it is right in front of you. So, it’s a disinformation effort that’s concerning here, not the fact that they have kept the secret. They haven’t kept it. It’s been getting out into the public for fifty years or more.”

1. The Alien Abduction of Betty Andreasson Luca

On the evening of January 25, 1967, Betty Andreasson was in her kitchen at South Ashburnham, Massachusetts. Her seven children, mother, and father were in the living room. At about 6:35 p.m., the house lights suddenly blinked out for a moment. Then, a pulsating reddish-orange light shined in the kitchen window. Betty calmed the frightened children while her father rushed to look out the kitchen window. He saw a group of strange-looking small creatures approaching with a hopping motion. Five small humanoid creatures entered the house, passing right through the wooden door.

Betty's family was immediately placed into suspended animation. One creature went over to her father. The leader of the other four established telepathic communication with Betty.

The leader was about five feet tall. The others were about four feet tall. All had large pear-shaped heads, wide catlike wraparound eyes, and diminutive ears and noses. Their mouths were immobile slits that reminded Betty of scar lines. Each wore a coverall blue uniform adorned with a Sam Browne-type belt. An insignia of a bird was affixed to their sleeves. Their hands had three digits. (Later, on the craft, they were gloved.) They wore boot-like attire on their feet. They floated rather than walked.

Betty's initial fright was immediately calmed by an overpowering sense of friendship. When she displayed concern for her family's welfare, the creatures temporarily released her eleven-year-old daughter, Becky, from this strange state of unawareness to assure Betty that she was all right.

Then Betty was taken outside and brought on board a small craft resting on the side of a hill that sloped into the back yard. The machine was about twenty feet in diameter. It looked like two saucers, one inverted upon the other, with a small superstructure on top. The small craft accelerated and apparently merged with a larger parent craft, in which Betty was subjected to the effects of strange equipment and a physical examination. Then she was taken to an alien place and given a bizarre object lesson that caused her to undergo a painful yet ecstatic religious-like experience.

Later that night, a 10:40 p.m., Betty was returned home by two of her alien captors. At home, she found her family still in a state of suspended animation. One being had stayed behind to watch over them during her absence. Then the beings put the family — still under some type of mind control — to bed, and the aliens left.

Several times, the aliens had told Betty that certain things had been locked in her mind. She was instructed to forget them and her UFO experience until the appointed time. She consciously remembered only a fraction of the strange encounter; the power failure, the colored light flashing through the window, and the aliens entering the house.

Betty, a devout Christian, interpreted the creatures as religious or angelic in nature. The subject of UFOs was largely unknown to her. Her education had been limited to ten years of schooling, her basic interests included family, church, and community-related activities. Not until much later did she think of her experience as a possible UFO encounter.

In 1975, Betty responded to a local newspaper story about UFO researcher Dr. J. Allen Hynek, who was soliciting personal UFO experience information from the public. Betty's letter contained such few data, however, that it was filed and forgotten until an investigation in January 1977. The investigating team consisted of a solar physicist, an electronics engineer, an aerospace engineer, a telecommunications specialist, and a UFO investigator. They employed the services of a professional hypnotist and a medical doctor trained in psychiatry. During a twelve-month investigation, they conducted an extensive character-reference check, two lie-detector tests, a psychiatric interview, and fourteen lengthy hypnotic regression sessions. Under hypnosis, Betty and her daughter relived a consistent, detailed UFO experience with genuine physiological reactions. Their three-volume, 528-page report led to the conclusion that the witnesses were reliable and sane individuals who sincerely believed the experience had really occurred.

2. Betty's NDE-Like Experience With the Being of Light

The following are the exact transcripts from Betty's hypnotic regression when Betty was regressed to her childhood during one of her first abduction experiences and her encounter with the Being of Light she refers to as "the One".

BETTY: We're coming up to this wall of glass and a big, big, big, big, big door. It's made out of glass.

HYPNOTIST: Does it have hinges?

BETTY: No. It is so big and there is – I can't explain it. It is door after door after door after door. He (the alien leading her) is stopping there and telling me to stop. I'm just stopping there. He says: "Now you shall enter the door to see the One." And he says, "Fear not."

[Then Betty appeared to undergo an out-of-body experience!]

BETTY: And I'm standing there and I'm coming out of myself! There's two of me! There's two of me there!

HYPNOTIST: Are you looking at yourself?

BETTY: Uh, huh.

HYPNOTIST: Okay. Do you see the One yet?

BETTY: The One? No.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, go on.

BETTY: I'm coming up to the door, and the little person is saying: "Now you shall enter the Great Door and see the glory of the One." And I'm standing face to face with that door.

[Betty now stood before the strange door. Again, she described its appearance and her out-of-body experience.]

BETTY: There's a big door there, and it is big, but it is strange. It is like deeper and deeper and deeper. And it's bright, really bright. And I have to stand before the door. But, before that, I came out of myself. I was just standing over there, and I was standing over here. There were two of me, but that one over there was stiff.

HYPNOTIST: Have you tried to talk to your other self?

BETTY: That won't work, because I'm over here, and that one is over there.

HYPNOTIST: She looks exactly like you? Is she making motions to show you she is alive, like breathing, moving her arms?

BETTY: No.

HYPNOTIST: Would you say she looks like a wax museum piece or something?

BETTY: No, it looks just like me.

HYPNOTIST: All right, go on.

BETTY: I was told to come forward. I went in the door, and it's very bright. I can't take you any further.

HYPNOTIST: Why?

BETTY: Because.

HYPNOTIST: What do you mean, because?

BETTY: I can't take you past this door.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, I'll tell you what. You go past that door alone then for a few minutes, okay?

[Time and again, the hypnotist tried in different ways to induce Betty to tell him what was behind the door – all in vain.]

HYPNOTIST: Sometime maybe, if you change your mind, would you tell me?

BETTY: I can't change my mind. It is set.

HYPNOTIST: What would happen to you if you did tell me?

BETTY: I can't tell you. I'm sorry.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, let's proceed to the first thing you can tell me. Fair enough?

BETTY: Oh!

[Betty's face glows with joy]

HYPNOTIST: What's happening now?

BETTY: I'm coming out of that door, and it was wonderful!

HYPNOTIST: Did the One say something exciting?

BETTY: I can't tell you. I'm sorry.

HYPNOTIST: Would you say that the One was God?

BETTY: Do you really know what God is?

HYPNOTIST: I don't know. I was hoping that you had seen him and could therefore tell me.

BETTY: I can't tell you about that.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, let's proceed. What's happening now? You just came out of the room, and you feel great.

BETTY: I come out of the door, and there is a tall white-haired man standing there and he's got on a long nightgown.

[The next session took place on May 15, 1980. Determined to find out what lay behind the Great Door, the hypnotist again brought Betty back in time to where she was standing before it.]

HYPNOTIST: Where are you?

BETTY: I'm before this huge great big door. It's glass. Layers and layers of glass.

HYPNOTIST: What are you standing on?

BETTY: Glass.

HYPNOTIST: Let me ask you now: You're going to see the One now, right?

BETTY: Yeah.

HYPNOTIST: Why are you going to see the One?

BETTY: Because it is time for me, they said, for me to go home to see the One.

HYPNOTIST: All right, in other words, does this imply that the One is someone that you have seen before?

BETTY: I don't remember.

HYPNOTIST: Okay. Do you know why it is time to see the One? Why haven't you asked questions?

BETTY: They haven't been there very often. Those little people haven't been there very much for me to ask.

HYPNOTIST: Yeah, but they are asking you to do a lot of things, shall we say.

BETTY: I know. But I'm in their place. I can't do anything.

HYPNOTIST: Okay. In a moment you're going to see the One, right? We don't want to waste the experience. We want to get the most out of it. So, when you see the One, I want you to ask yourself: "What am I getting out of this? Why am I here? And what will this mean to me later on in my life?" It's like any big experience a person is allowed to have. Okay? I want you to progress to where the door is open, and you are seeing the One.

BETTY: Oh!

[At this very moment, an indescribable smile came over Betty's face. The only adjective that the investigators could think of to describe it is rapturous. This expression of pure, unrestricted happiness remained on Betty's face as the hypnotist continued to question her.]

HYPNOTIST: You seem happy. Why are you so happy?

BETTY: It's just – ah, I just, I can't tell you about it.

HYPNOTIST: All right. I know you can't tell me, but I want you to do a few things. I want you to ask yourself why you are being shown that which you are being shown. In other words, you weren't given this trip just for a free ride, so to speak. They want you to see what you are seeing. Does that make sense?

BETTY: Yes.

HYPNOTIST: All right. Now that you're there, ask yourself: "What am I getting out of this? Why am I here? What am I supposed to think about after I leave here?"

BETTY: Oh, it matters not what I get from it.

HYPNOTIST: What do you mean?

BETTY: It's — words cannot explain it. It's wonderful. It's for everybody. I just can't tell you this.

HYPNOTIST: You can't? Okay, why can't you?

BETTY: For one thing, it's too overwhelming and it is – it is indescribable. I just can't tell you. Besides it's just impossible for me to tell you.

HYPNOTIST: All right. Are you capable, when looking around you, to tell yourself?

BETTY: I see it.

HYPNOTIST: Right. That which you can see, you have a grasp of even if you don't understand it.

BETTY: I understand it. I'm sorry. I'm just sorry. I wish I could share it with you.

HYPNOTIST: Were you told not to share it with me?

BETTY: It is like even if I was able to speak it, I wouldn't be able to speak it. I can't. I'm sorry.

HYPNOTIST: Were you specifically told not to speak it?

BETTY: Partly, yeah.

HYPNOTIST: How was it expressed to you?

BETTY: I can't tell you those things. I'm sorry.

HYPNOTIST: All right. Can we let the beings speak through you? Suppose you just relax, and I'll put my hand on your shoulder and with each number you will go deeper and deeper. When I reach three, you will just relax and allow the beings to speak through you. One, two, three.

[Betty began speaking in a strange tongue.]

HYPNOTIST: Okay, Betty, can you explain to me so that I could understand what you have just said?

[Betty begins crying]

BETTY: Father loves the world so very much.

HYPNOTIST: Yes?

BETTY: And so many reject him.

HYPNOTIST: Uh huh, okay. You said a lot of words. Can you explain more of what you said?

BETTY: They will be felt by those who believe and have faith. They will feel the love radiating from them.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, where are you now?

BETTY: I'm where there is light.

HYPNOTIST: And what do you see?

BETTY: I cannot tell you this.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, that's all right. Let me ask you. Do you feel much love, the same love, or any different degree of love now than you have before?

BETTY: It's a greater love.

HYPNOTIST: Okay. When will I understand all of the words that the being said through you?

BETTY: When you allow the Spirit to come upon you and you are filled with that love.

HYPNOTIST: Do you understand all the words that you have said?

BETTY: I understand them, but they will not come forth.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, I'm trying to understand. I'm not trying to ask you to divulge anything, all right? You understand them, but you can't express them?

BETTY: They're in my heart.

HYPNOTIST: More like a feeling than a concept?

BETTY: They're in my heart, in my mind, in my body.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, could you explain this to your children?

BETTY: What children?

[During this hypnotic session, Betty was regressed to a childhood experience when she was single with no children.]

HYPNOTIST: If you have children someday. The words that you spoke, while they had a message of love in them, did they also have a warning?

BETTY: Yes. Those that do not have love have nothing. Love is the answer.

[Again, the hypnotist failed to elicit the information that he sought regarding what Betty had experienced while behind the Great Door. With endless patience, he tried yet again.]

HYPNOTIST: Okay. You've seen the One. Do you feel different about anything now than you did before?

BETTY: Everything is so wonderful!

HYPNOTIST: Is there anybody that you don't like?

BETTY: No.

HYPNOTIST: There are some people, shall we say, that aren't as nice as other people, right?

BETTY: No, everybody is nice. They are just growing, that's all. If one doesn't understand another one, they are just growing, that's all.

HYPNOTIST: Okay, just relax. You've been to see the One and now everything is a little nicer, right?

BETTY: I understand that everything is one.

HYPNOTIST: What do you mean?

BETTY: Everything fits together. Everything is one. It's beautiful! No matter what it is!

[Betty's experience with the One ends here.]

3. UFOs and the Near-Death Experience

Betty Luca's description under hypnosis of her experience of the One in the preceding page is instantly recognizable as the same type of experience reported by many experiencers, and even in many cases the same IDENTICAL experience. It is a very basic kind of spiritual experience, which has also been consistently reported throughout history by saints, mystics, and various types of ecstasies.

The similarities between UFO abduction and NDEs have been explored by a number of writers and researchers, the most famous and credentialed of which is undoubtedly Dr. Ken Ring. Dr. Ring did an extensive series of clinical studies on the NDE and published his results in Life at Death and Heading Toward Omega. Then he did a follow-up project in which he studied UFO experiencers (primarily "abductees"), and specifically compared this phenomenon to that of near-death. His full report can be found in The Omega Project; he found strong similarities between the two types of experience, and hypothesized that they may actually be two variants of a more basic underlying phenomenon.

Ring also quotes other commentators, who make the following remarks:

According to polls, we live in an age where now most people believe that UFOs are real and that 'people like us live on other planets.' In that context, since angels and demons are out of style, they now dress in the costume of our own epoch's archetypal figure – the extraterrestrial alien – whom we can see precisely because we can now CONCEIVE of him; he conforms to and expresses our current ideas of possibility.

Abductions may represent a contemporary form of shamanic journey – one that fits and is phrased in terms of a highly technological society which has already turned its imaginative attention to star flight ... Perhaps the (ancient) otherworld journey motif is ‘camouflaged’ in the modern lore of space travel which, like the fantastic voyage legends of the past, exemplifies what might be called the lure of the edge.

These ecological and millennial themes have been part of the canon of the UFO world and its literature for a long time, and many persons have already commented on their quasi-religious character. Indeed, in an age where secular thinking has come to be the standard but from which the religious impulse has never disappeared, it is psychologically very understandable why traditional religious images of salvation have come to be projected onto the screen of a universe where, for some, it is easier to believe in ETs than in God.

Betty Luca does believe in God very strongly, being a devout Christian; yet a striking difference between her experience and that of near-death experiencers is that she was escorted to it not by dead relatives nor Christian spiritual figures, but by small gray bug-eyed space aliens. Yet, at the end of this first event, which occurred when she was only 13 years old, there appeared figures of a different type: a number of entities who were human-looking except for their size, being about seven feet tall; they were dressed in long white robes, had pale-colored skin, and hair that was blond to white. In a word, they looked exactly like the Christian image of angels, except that they had no wings. Betty called these beings “the Elders,” after the Christian term used especially in the Book of Revelation, denoting the angelic beings surrounding the throne of God. (Note: Experiencers have also reported being brought before a Council of Elders to have a life review).

After some three decades of further experiences, reported in a total of four books by researcher Raymond Fowler, there came a point when the Elders seemed to completely take over Betty’s encounters.

All the earlier events, including her first experience of the One, took place in mysterious locations which seemed to be underground, or else on or near the surface of the Earth. But now, as reported in the last of Fowler’s books, The Watchers II: Exploring UFOs and the Near Death Experience, the small Grays came again for Betty in a saucer, and for the first time took her into outer space, where the small craft docked with a huge cylindrical mother-ship. This was the domain of the Elders, who apparently commanded the Grays in a symbiotic relationship. This journey climaxed for Betty in another ecstatic experience of the One, though this time the events leading up to it were very different.

Betty asked why she was here with the Elders, and they said:

“Don’t you remember your blessing?”

She didn’t know what they were talking about, and in response they used a machine to show her a scene from earlier in her life. It was at a church service, and what happened was this:

Betty stood up and gave testimony and pledged to use her talents for the glory of God. This was probably not unusual for this type of service. But then the minister suddenly began speaking in tongues. His wife jumped up, ran down the aisle to Betty, put her hands on Betty's head, and began speaking in tongues herself. Then the minister interpreted his wife's tongues; it was a message for Betty:

“You have given all that you have ... thou shalt be blessed above women ... “

This was evidently the scene as Betty remembered it from when she was younger. But now in the strange replay on the mother-ship, she noticed some differences. Some of the people had a light around them – these included Betty, the minister, and his wife. And two Elders were present in the room, unseen by the congregation. One of the Elders stood behind the minister and put his hand on the man's shoulder – and this is when he began speaking in tongues. Then the Elder whispered in the ear of the minister's wife, and this is when she jumped up and administered “the blessing” to Betty. Evidently the whole scenario had been orchestrated by the Elders.

After being shown this scene from the past, Betty witnessed live what clearly seems to have been an act of ritual magic performed by the Elders. Three of them stepped into a circle drawn on the floor, subdivided by straight lines into six equal parts.

They touched their hands together, and then, as they concentrated, beams of light came out of their foreheads, and formed a triangle. At length, in the center of this triangle, there appeared a ring of light, floating in the air.

Three more Elders stepped into the circle, and they all began chanting “Oh.” Three more beams of light appeared, forming a perfect hexagram. A larger circle of light formed around the heads of the Elders. Then this light-ring moved upwards, shrank to the same size as the ring in the center, and floated down and interconnected with it, forming a revolving spherical object which finally condensed into a beach ball-sized orb of lavender-purple light. This was then taken and placed in a four-pronged stand which had obviously been designed specifically to hold such spheres.

The term “Elders” is Betty's name for these beings. When on an earlier occasion she had asked them who they were, they had answered that they are “the ambassadors of Oh, masters of rings, cycles, and orbs.” Now, after witnessing the creation of this magical orb, Betty asked an Elder:

“Who is Oh?”

He replied that Oh is “the internal, external, eternal presence.”

The next thing that happened to Betty's extreme startlement, was that the Elders induced an out-of-body experience in her. This is similar to what happened in her experience at age 13, before she entered the Great Door and saw the One. Now, on the mother-ship, as soon as she emerged in her subtle body, one of the Elders handed her the orb of purple light, and another led her through a portal made of rippling waves of energy.

On the other side of the portal, Betty and the Elder seemed to be on Earth, in some woods at night. Some hobos were sleeping on the ground. One of them awakened and approached the two visitors; he glowed with light. The Elder wore little rings of light on his fingers. He allowed the hobo to take some of them, and they turned into a single tiny ball of light, which the man kept. Meanwhile, the larger orb in Betty's hands changed color momentarily, evidently in resonance with the transaction. Every once in awhile, Betty's attention was drawn into the ball:

“Oh,” she said, “it's just so beautiful! Something in it keeps on moving...”

Now the Elder touched Betty's shoulder. There was a little explosion of white light, and then they were in a different place: a hospital room, where a very old man lay in a bed, with a nurse keeping vigil beside him. And there was more: two small entities which seemed to be made of darkness where tugging at the man, as if trying to pull his soul out of his body – this was Betty's impression. But there was also present a light-being; this was a type of entity Betty had encountered before in her experiences – it had no visible human features but appeared as a bodily form made of white light. This being was also tugging at the dying man; it was clearly a battle for his soul between these opposing entities. The Elder resolved the conflict: he threw two tiny balls of light at the black entities, and they flew away.

The Elder and Betty next transported to some woods again, where a small saucer and two of the Grays awaited them. They went on board, and evidently flew up into the sky. Betty asked where they were going now, and the Elder replied that they were going to see the One.

Betty had to give the purple orb to one of the Grays; she was very reluctant and sorrowful to give it up. The craft came to a stop, and they emerged into a place filled with bright light. Above them was the Great Door, which was the source of the light. The Elder touched one of the Grays on the shoulder and spoke to him, and he came along with the Elder and Betty as they walked toward the Light. Their walk turned into a run, as they moved swiftly into the pure radiance. Betty was overwhelmed with the ecstasy of the One, which she re-experienced on the hypnotist's couch, and the several people in attendance were all profoundly moved by the visible effects of her transformation.

Betty, the Elder, and the Gray all turned into light-beings as they went into the One. Each was a different hue: the Elder's light-body was pure white, the Gray alien's was light blue, and Betty's was golden.

Betty said: “Oh, there is such love ... Oh, there is such peace ... I'm just engulfed in light and blending into that light. Oh! ... Oh, this is everything, everything, everything ... I cannot explain the wonder and beauty and love and peace.”

And then came a heartbroken cry as Betty realized that she would have to leave this beatific state of Oneness:

“Oh, I'm going to have to go back. I have to go back for others so that they too will see, will understand and know ...”

And Betty, the Elder, and the Gray emerged back out of the Light, turning back into their normal forms in the process.

The Elder gave three of the tiny balls of light to Betty; then she was escorted into the saucer and taken home by the Grays. She found her physical body sitting up on the side of her bed next to her sleeping husband and re-entered it. The experience had ended.

4. Edgar Cayce on Extraterrestrials

Edgar Cayce had more documented out-of-body sojourns than perhaps any other person who ever lived. His NDEs were induced through self-hypnosis which put Cayce in a unique type of trance which allowed him to leave his body and travel through the tunnel and into heaven. The range of hidden knowledge he acquired through these journeys are truly remarkable and unequalled. During Cayce's lifetime, such terms as UFOs, aliens, flying saucers, or extraterrestrials, did not exist. Cayce died in 1945 before the UFO craze and it wasn't until after 1947 that these terms came into common usage in the public. But the Cayce material does contain a few interesting tidbits that relate to extraterrestrial life and extraterrestrial visits to Earth.

In a 1939 reading, Edgar Cayce related to a man that one of his past incarnations was in Atlantis who fled the destruction to the Yucatan, Pyrenees, and Egypt. Cayce continued:

“For the manners of transportation, the manners of communications through the airships of that period were such as Ezekiel described of a much later date.” [1859-1]

The Book of Ezekiel (circa 600 B.C.) describes what many UFO writers have interpreted as a flying saucer: “And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire ... and their rings were full of eyes round about them four. And when the living creatures were lifted up from the Earth, the wheels were lifted up.”

The most definitive Cayce reading on ancient visits to Earth by extraterrestrial beings was given in 1938:

“Before this we find the entity was in the land now known as the Mexican and Yucatan land ... It was just before that period when those as from the east had come, and there were the beginnings of the unfoldment of the understanding that there were other portions of the same land, or those that were visiting from other worlds or planets.” [1616-1]

The reading goes on to describe how human sacrifices had developed, and it was causing torment. The time frame and location of these apparent visits by people “from other worlds or planets” is fairly narrow. It was in the Mayan (Yucatan) region, and it was after Christ’s appearance in Israel. The time frame becomes clear in a later portion of the reading:

“Before that we find the entity was in the Earth during the days when the Master walked in the Earth, and in and about those portions where there were the journeyings of the Master into strange lands – or out of the Palestine or Galilean land.” [1616-1]

One other 1938 Cayce reading appears to strongly suggest ancient extraterrestrial visitations, but this time it took place in the Atlantean land, around 10,000 B.C. Incredibly, the reading could mean that the warning given to Atlantean priests about the impending destruction of Atlantis could have come from extraterrestrial sources. Furthermore, the need to have the Atlantean records preserved in three locations also appears to have come from the same source:

“Before that we find the entity was in the Atlantean land. There we find the entity was very close to those in authority; being that one who was the keeper of the portals as well as the messages that were received from the visitation of those from the outer spheres, in the latter part of the entity’s experience there. For it was the entity that received the message as to the needs of dividing the children of the Law of One for the preservation of the truths of same in other lands. Hence, we find the entity was among those who were as the directors of those expeditions, or the leaving for the many varied lands just before the breaking up of the Atlantean land. Hence the entity outlined in the most part, it might be said, the expedition guided by Ax-Tell and the ones to the Pyrenees and to the Yucatan and to the land of Og.” [1681-1]

Cayce also mentioned in many readings for individuals that they had prior sojourns on other planets as part of a necessary progression of experience. These sojourns on other planets, however, are not really in a physical form as we understand it. They are spiritual experiences in which Cayce describes the manifestation of the soul on a particular planet as adapted to the environment and conditions of that planet. These soul manifestations are sometimes described as somewhat physical as well as occasionally in spirit or consciousness alone. For example, in a 1934 reading Cayce stated:

“Not that Venus, Jupiter, Mars, Uranus or any of the planets about this earth’s sun have beings or bodies such as are known in the earth’s sojourns; but those that are peculiar to their own realm – their own element or position from the solar light, or the light and heat.” [541-1]

Another 1934 reading relates a similar message:

“We find Jupiter, then, as the greater ruling force; or the entity’s sojourn in that environ. Not as a physical body as known in the Earth, but as a body adaptable to the environs of Jupiter; for there’s life there (not as known in Earth), as there is in Saturn, Sun, Moon, Venus, Mercury, Uranus, Neptune, Mars; all have their form – as about the Earth, the inhabitants of the air, fire, water – in and out of the Earth. The elements about same are inhabited, if you choose, by those of their own peculiar environment.” [630-2]

Several Cayce readings describe dwellers on the moon, but these also appear to be descriptions of individuals’ sojourns. In a 1933 reading Cayce related:

“As it has been often presented by one school of thought, the dwellers upon the Moon (the satellite of the Earth) preceded the abilities for matter (expressed in a form that is known as matter in the Earth). And this entity was among those that so dwelt and is influenced by two sojourns there.” [264-31]

Carefully reviewing this reading, it appears that Cayce’s statement that the dwellers on the moon “preceded the abilities for matter” means that the form the souls took on the moon was nonphysical and was a preparation for a later physical incarnation on Earth. A 1936 reading explained this further:

“It is not that a soul AS a body is in an environment that it lives upon a planet as one does in the Earth, but that the consciousness which is befitting to the environ of the planet is in that environ, see?” [826-8]

The question of whether or not human-like life exists on the planets of our solar system was directly answered in this Cayce reading:

QUESTION: “Upon what planets other than the Earth does human life exist?”

ANSWER: “None as human life in the Earth.” [826-8]

5. NDE Visions of the Future Involving UFOs and the Constellation of Orion

The Orion constellation as a pattern of stars is repeated in monuments throughout the ancient world from Egypt to Mexico. This constellation has been the center of the skies for our ancestors. On Lou Famoso’s NDE page on this website, it is shown how ancient civilizations believed the constellation of Orion to be of great importance concerning human origins and the “return of the gods.” According to Egyptian mythology, the gods descended from the belt of Orion and Sirius — the brightest star in the sky. The people of ancient Egypt believed that beings from Sirius and Orion came to Earth to begin the human race. Through the arrangement of the various structures at Giza there is much evidence pointing to a clear connection of the Giza pyramids with the belt stars of the Orion constellation. The Bible connects the Giza Pyramids in Egypt with prophecies of the Coming of the Hebrew Messiah. The late John Jay Harper (1951-2010), author of Tranceformers: Shamans of the 21st Century, saw Orion as a “sign of the times” for the coming earth changes. Some sources claim the Hall of Records have already been discovered.

a. “The Gathering” of UFOs According to NDErs and OBErs

Lou Famoso (Near-Death Experiencer)

Near-death experiencers have seen visions of the future involving this important constellation. The near-death experiencer, Lou Famoso, was shown visions of the future by the archangel Gabriel and was told how Orion would play an important role in future events including major earth changes, end time prophecies, and the coming of a “new world” where humanity would finally attain world peace. Lou was told of a future event known as “The Gathering” involving sudden, catastrophic earth changes and great loss of life. There are other credible sources mentioning a similar future event called “The Gathering,” such as the OBE pioneer Robert Monroe, and the near-death experiencer Natalie Sudman. According to these sources, The Gathering is an event where alien intelligences from other areas of universe (extraterrestrials) and other beings from other dimensions (afterlife realms) will gather to observe these upcoming earth changes.

The Being of Light and the archangel Gabriel revealed to Lou Famoso the following signs which would bring forth the Gathering and which would happen all at the same time. Apparently, before the major earth catastrophe and changes occur, “The Gathering” will yank the souls out of the bodies of those about to be killed — a mass out-of-body experience to the afterlife. The Gathering is an event similar to what fundamentalist Christians refer to as “The Rapture” (also Matthew 24:37-40 and 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17) except that it occurs as a phenomenon not as a respecter of a persons religious belief.

- (1) Men in uniforms from the USA will be killing men in other uniforms.
- (2) Thousands of men not in uniforms will be killing even more thousands not in uniform from different countries and different religions.
- (3) Many floods will spill across the Earth on different continents in different seasons causing hundreds of lives, animals, and acres of crops to be lost.
- (4) Portions of New York City will be devastated.
- (5) Volcanoes from around the world would erupt, first one then another, with the molten lava burying whole towns and the people and animals within them. Ash clouds will envelope the earth.

- (6) Earthquakes will destroy sections of almost every continent with a massive one in America. A huge earthquake, a magnitude of 8.6, will occur in someplace named “Eureka.”
- (7) A space station will fall from space because of an internal explosion.
- (8) Solar coronal mass ejections will become more frequent and will hit the Earth.
- (9) Missiles will be fired simultaneously into space from several nations.
- (10) The Earth will wobble wildly as would a top toward the end of its spin.
- (11) The ocean level will rise: first along the Pacific “Ring of Fire”, then the others, synchronistical, causing landmasses to sink under the waters.

Robert Monroe (Out-of-Body Experience Pioneer)

The late Robert Monroe (1915-1995) was the pioneer in investigating out-of-body experiences (OBEs) and was the author of ground-breaking books entitled, Journeys Out Of The Body (1992), Far Journeys (1992), and Ultimate Journey (1996). Unpredictably and spontaneously, Monroe would find himself leaving his physical body and traveling by means of a second body to locations within the physical realm as well as the spirit realms. Monroe and his associates began working on a method to induce and control OBEs and other forms of consciousness in their laboratory. Because Monroe and his associates were specialists in creating effective sound patterns, they began their research using sound patterns. Their research ultimately yielded significant results. In 1974, he founded the Monroe Institute (www.monroeinstitute.org) and began conducting seminars in self-control of human consciousness. Three patents were issued to Monroe for the methods and techniques so generated, and the trademark, HEMI-SYNC, also became broad public knowledge. In his book, Far Journeys, Monroe described his OBE travels to various spirit/afterlife locations including a location labeled “The Gathering” (also known as “The Big Show”) which is a level of consciousness where intelligences from other areas of universe (extraterrestrials) and dimensions gather to observe the upcoming Earth changes. According to Monroe:

“Somewhere between the Earth and the moon” a host of countless numbers of forms glowing in various degrees of expectancy have come together to witness “a very rare event — the conflux of several different and intense energy fields arriving at the same point in your time-space.” Monroe reports he experienced OBE sojourns to “The Gathering” (which he also said was known as “The Big Show”) and is a location in the astral realm. The Gathering exists to observe the possible “birth of a new energy” that will “offer human consciousness a rare potential to emerge rapidly into a unified intelligent energy system that will range far beyond your time-space illusion, creating, constructing, teaching as only a human-trained graduate energy is able to do.” — from sources by Robert Monroe.

For more information about Robert Monroe and “the Gathering” see these sources [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#) [\[3\]](#) [\[4\]](#).

Natalie Sudman (Near-Death Experiencer)

According to NDEr Natalie Sudman, the following is her description of her NDE encounter with “The Gathering” which also appears in her book Application of Impossible Things:

“In this new environment, I stood on an oval dais... addressing thousands of white-robed beings or personalities. They were arrayed up and all around me as if I stood in the center of a huge stadium... The personalities were non-physical in essence, taking on form if they intended to do that for a particular purpose. I perceived the way they looked according to what I preferred for my purposes. At the time, since I had been abruptly transferred from the physical plane, it was simpler to perceive them in a human form, wearing glowing white robes... I knew the Gathering to be a meeting of many groups representing a wide variety of interests and responsibilities pertaining not only directly to Earth and physical universe energies but to dimensions and issues beyond... I presented what seems from my current physical body/conscious mind perception to be a transfer of information in the form of an inexplicably complex matrix... It included events, thoughts, incidents, individuals, and groups in all their relationship complexities: stories, concepts, connections, nuances, layers, judgments, and projections... Rather than being a classic ‘life flashing before the eyes’ scene, this download was a collection that emphasized what might be very broadly understood as cultural and political information. I was aware that I deliberately offered the condensed data in fulfillment of a request that had been made by this Gathering of personalities prior to my taking on this body for this physical lifetime... When the thought form or matrix had been absorbed by everyone, which took but seconds, discussions proceeded among the various groups and within the whole of the Gathering... All communication was accomplished through thought. They then requested that I return to my physical body to accomplish some further work. I was given to understand that my particular skills with energy were needed at this time and would be effective only were I actually present in a body within the Earth vibration... We agreed upon specific tasks that I would accomplish and specific things that they would assist me with once I was back in the physical... We discussed mechanical details of what I'd agreed to do for the Gathering, as well as some personal issues. Then I simply took a deep breath and popped back into the body... I hesitate to outline or specifically discuss the skills that were highlighted as useful to the Gathering. I consider them unique and interesting to me because they're mine, but I don't want a description of some of them to be interpreted as grandiose or 'special' in anyone's value hierarchy" (From excerpts of her book at NDERF.org, "Application of Impossible Things.")

Lou Famoso describes the message that the archangel Gabriel gave him to share with the world:

"Gabriel now tells me that this is His message that I must take back: to let others know that there is little to fear, for the Earth will go on forever, as did all the planets I had visited. I am to tell the world to look to Orion, and they will know when the new world will come upon them. I asked Him, 'What of the others there on Earth, during the change?' Gabriel told me that all will be lifted. Some will be lifted higher than others and no longer enjoy the physical plane, while some will be left on the Earth to replenish and rebuild the physical. They too will be of a higher elevation than any that are living there now!" — from Lou Famoso's NDE

Edgar Cayce (Near-Death Experiencer)

According to the Christian mystic and NDEr, Edgar Cayce, major earth changes are soon to come followed by a "golden age" for humanity. Cayce associated one of Jesus' many past lives with Hermes, the sage who began the Hermetic tradition and the one who designed and build the Giza Pyramids. Cayce also mentioned the mystical "Hall of Records" would be discovered as the time approaches when future Earth changes occur [Cayce reading 5750-1]:

"...What is the coast line now of many a land will be the bed of the ocean. Even many of the battle fields of the present will be ocean, will be the seas, the bays, the lands over which the new [world] order will carry on their trade as one with another. Portions of the now east coast of New York, or New York City itself, will in the main disappear. This will be another generation, though, here; while the southern portions of Carolina, Georgia – these will disappear. This will be much sooner. The waters of the [Great] Lakes will empty into the Gulf [of Mexico], rather than the waterway over which such discussions have been recently made. It would be well if the waterway were prepared, but not for that purpose for which it is at present being considered." [Edgar Cayce reading 1152-11]

"The greater portion of Japan must go into the sea. The upper portion of Europe will be changed as in the twinkling of an eye. Land will appear off the east coast of America. There will be the upheavals in the Arctic and in the Antarctic that will make for the eruption of volcanoes in the Torrid areas, and there will be shifting then of the poles – so that where there has been those of a frigid or the semi-tropical will become the more tropical, and moss and fern will grow." [Edgar Cayce reading 3976-15]

b. Signs in the Sun, Moon, and Stars of Orion

“There will be signs in the Sun, Moon and stars.” (Jesus Christ, Gospel of Luke 21:25)

An interesting note for Bible prophecy / astrologers: The “blood moon prophecies” concerning the series of four consecutive lunar eclipses from April 2014 to September 2015 — coinciding on Jewish holidays — with six full moons in between, and no intervening partial lunar eclipses, which many people saw was described in the Bible (Joel 2:30-31, Revelation 6:12, Acts 2:20), are not the only recent major “signs of the times.” There are two other “signs” widely reported in the news. They are:

The Great American Total Solar Eclipse of August 21, 2017

The first sign was “The Great American Total Solar Eclipse” of August 21, 2017, which darkened skies across the entire country from Oregon to South Carolina with a 70-mile-wide shadow cast by the moon passing between the Sun and the Earth. It was the first total solar eclipse to fall across the United States in 99 years (1918). It was also the first total solar eclipse since 1776 whose path of totality stays completely in the United States. For astrology buffs, the following information will be of interest:

The Great Eclipse Astrological Aspects of Interest

- (1) America’s natal horoscope (July 4, 1776) contains a Sun-Saturn square.
- (2) The Great American Total Solar Eclipse will oppose America’s natal Moon in America’s 1776 natal horoscope.
- (3) The Great American Total Solar Eclipse falls in the 1 North Saros Series, the same Series as the August 11, 1999 “Nostradamus” or “King of Terror” solar eclipse.
- (4) The Fixed Grand Cross of that August 11, 1999 eclipse is notable for its appearance in the Book of Revelation 4:7.
- (5) The Fixed Grand Cross is the Oxen Point, the Lion Point, the Eagle Point, and the Angel Point of the mid-degrees of the Fixed signs (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, and Aquarius).

For more information, see these articles: [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#) [\[3\]](#)

These appear to be all part of the “signs of the times.” The Great American Eclipse dividing the country from Oregon to the Carolinas was following by three record breaking hurricanes: (1) Hurricane Harvey which hit Texas (August 25, 2017), (2) Hurricane Irma which hit Florida (September 10, 2017), and (3) Hurricane Maria which destroyed Puerto Rico’s power grid and ultimately killed 3,000 people (September 20, 2017). Astrologically, the divisive political climate which also divided this country from Oregon to the Carolinas after the November 2016 election, also represents an omen of the great civil crisis which this country will soon be facing.

Near-Death Experience Reveals Secret to Rapid Healing - IANDS.org

by Nancy Rynes

One of the most miraculous aspects of many near-death experiences is the almost immediate physical healing of the body – generally from that which caused the “death” of the body in the first place. Experiencers have reported going into immediate remission from cancer, others have had tumors disappear, and trauma victims experience accelerated healing of bones, organs, and tissues. Generally, near-death experiencers report overall rapid healing after having experienced time in the afterlife.

Have you wondered how it works, and if it is related to what we call Reiki and other energy-healing modalities?

I too, experienced almost miraculous healing after my NDE, and that healing has led me down a path I never expected to take. The injuries that I sustained during the trauma which eventually led to my NDE were severe: twenty-four bones were broken, each one in multiple places, for a total of well over 100 fractures. I sustained a cracked pelvis, cracked sternum, five broken ribs with associated punctured and collapsed lung, a broken collarbone, one almost-completely shattered vertebrae, and multiple broken vertebrae throughout my neck and lower back. Most of my transverse processes in my spine were cracked as well. I had come terrifyingly close to being a quadriplegic and feared that I would never walk again.

A few days after the accident, while in surgery to repair my spine, I died on the operating table. My resulting NDE was long and involved but near the end of my time in the afterlife, my spiritual guide and mentor, Mari, did something for me which was both sacred and incredibly helpful to my physical self: she performed an energy healing on my soul-body before sending me back to my human life. Within a few weeks, I noticed something unusual happening: rapid physical healing.

At first, I didn't connect Mari's energy work with the accelerated healing of my injuries. But then at four-and-a-half weeks post-accident, my doctor proclaimed that all my casts and braces could come off because my bones were healed. Unbelievable! How could this happen so quickly? The doctor seemed even more surprised than me since he expected I would be in the casts and braces for twelve to sixteen weeks. To have everything off in less than five weeks was a miracle.

That's when I remembered Mari's energy work, which then led me to research the subject and speak with energy practitioners. I came to understand that the physical body, including the brain, emotions, and associated traumas, can be affected positively or negatively by the status of our energy at all levels.

You are energy—not just your soul, but your body as well. It's not that you have energy inside of you, it's that you are energy. That's an important nuance that I had not truly understood before.

You are a continuous spectrum of levels of energy from the seemingly-solid physical, to the highest, most ethereal of the spiritual. Some of those levels at the lower end of the energy spectrum coalesce into a form that you know as your physical body. The higher levels of your individual energy state is your spiritual essence.

But how do energy healings, whether done during a spiritual experience like mine or through the skills of a trained practitioner, translate into changes in the physical body and mind?

During a spiritual experience, your soul is immersed in the energy of cosmic-scale love, which causes your soul to resonate at that frequency. As Dr. Gary Schwartz has demonstrated, the spiritual frequencies associated with love also happen to be the ones that have been demonstrated to enhance healing in the physical body. When you are immersed in Divine love, the vibration of that love-energy resonates through the levels from your soul to your physical body. That resonance sets up the conditions for rapid changes at the physical level, including healing.

It's also common for experiencers to report being in an "afterglow" state from their NDE for weeks or months. I certainly was. I lived in a state of almost constant gratitude, another form of love, for a few months after I came back into my body. It's this afterglow, a carryover of divine love, that I believe continued the healing I experienced during my NDE.

A few months after I physically healed, Mari told me that I could do the same thing for others that she had done for me. At first, I didn't believe her. I had never remotely fancied myself an energy worker, and in truth, it took me another couple of years to prepare myself emotionally. When I was ready, though, my teachers appeared: Mari and several celestials coached me through what I needed to know in order to begin. I also studied a few books on the scientific basis of energy work and took related classes. But what seemed to happen is that my spiritual teachers reawakened a skill that I already possessed.

Today I have the ability to work with a client's energy currents in order to promote wholeness, remove blocks that are keeping someone spiritually or emotionally stuck, and bring them back into the vibration of Divine Love. My clients have confirmed that this methodology is successful in helping them make spiritual and emotional breakthroughs, feel more peace, find clarity, and feel energetic again. During some sessions, I receive hints of other lives or direct messages exclusively for the client. Occasionally, angelic or celestial beings come in the room to assist, but I always know that the loving energy comes through me from the highest Divine Source, not from me.

If your own energy needs a little fine-tuning, try this: sit in a place where you won't be disturbed. Think about someone you love or something for which you are deeply grateful. Allow this feeling of love or gratitude to take over. Dive into it as much as you can. Simply immerse yourself in that feeling until it envelopes you completely. Stay in this state for about 10 minutes, just letting the vibration of love engulf you. You are bringing your body into alignment with the energy of love, which is also the energy of wholeness.

The energy of love heals our body and soul. Blockages to this energy can be removed, allowing the love to flow freely again. The more you can spend time in a loving state, the better you'll feel all around.

I'll be delving into many more details around this topic, as well as how we can use the wisdom of NDEs to bring about an evolution of humanity, at the 2019 IANDS National Conference in Philadelphia. I hope you'll join me.

THE ALLAGASH ABDUCTIONS

by Marge Myers, Secretary

At the February 13, 1994, UFO Study Group Meeting, member Rick-Karr gave an excellent and interesting report on Raymond E. Fowler's book, The Allagash Abductions. Fowler was born in Salem, MA in 1933. He received a BA degree from Gordon College of Liberal Arts. His career includes service with the USAF Security Service and with GTE Strategic Systems Division. He retired early as a task manager and senior planner involved with major weapons systems development. His contributions to ufology are respected by UFO researchers throughout the world, and his investigative reports have been published in congressional hearings, military publications, newspapers, magazines and professional journals in the U.S.A. and abroad. Fowler currently serves as national director of investigations on the board of directors of MUFON (Mutual UFO Network).

In May 1988 Fowler was hosting the annual PSI Symposium, which was centered on UFO's. As Karr states, little did Fowler know that another unique abduction case awaited him in the auditorium. It would be the indisputable evidence that UFO abductions are real!

The focus of is on four men, Jim and Jack Weiner (the twins), Chuck Rak and Charlie Foltz. Chuck made the arrangements for the canoe trip on the Allagash Waterway, and when the regular fourth member of the group was unable to make the trip, Charlie was asked to come along. The four men along with other campers were witness to a fireball in the sky. Thinking it probably was just a star, Jim took out his binoculars and soon discovered it was not a star but rather an unidentifiable object of some kind a few miles away, about 200 feet above the treetops. For a few seconds it hovered perfectly still then extinguished itself from the outside into the center. Two days later, they canoed to the Smithbrook Campground (the most remote spot on the lake) and found it was completely deserted. Hoping to replenish their food supply, they fished all day with little or no luck. As a result, they decided to do some night fishing. Using large logs, they built a very large fire. In fact, Jim was worried that they might start a forest fire. However, it was an extremely dark night, and they knew that they'd need to be able to count on the light of the campfire to find their way back to camp after fishing.

Filing into the canoe, Charlie Foltz sat in the front with his paddles, while the twins (Jim and Jack Weiner) sat side by side in the middle, using their hands to paddle. Chuck Rak sat in the back with his paddles. They were about a quarter mile from shore, halfway across the cove when it began. Chuck was the first to sense it when he became aware of a feeling of being watched, and turning around he saw a large, bright sphere of colored light hovering motionless and soundless about 200-300 feet above the southeastern rim of the cove. He realized he was the only one in position to see this from his vantage point in the rear of the canoe, so he drew attention of the others to the object by exclaiming, "That's a hell of a case of swamp gas!". In the front of the canoe, Charlie stopped paddling and looked around. By now all eyes were fixed on the object.

From Jack's perspective sitting next to his twin in the middle of the canoe, he described the object as a bright, pulsing, spherical light, with changing patterns in it that reminded him of science experiments that use a magnet and metal filings to illustrate a magnetic field. He described it as being big as a house, at least 80 feet in diameter, and absolutely silent.

Jim's impression was that the object appeared solid, had no observable protrusions or windows, and was approximately the size of a two-story house in circumference. The light was extremely bright, like a miniature sun. He came up with the idea of signaling it with their flashlight.

Charlie said that at first, he thought it was the moon rising over the trees, but soon realized it wasn't the moon because the light moved along the shoreline about 15 to 20 feet above the trees. He signaled it with his large flashlight ... three short, three long, and three short flashes. At the last blink of the flashlight, the thing came to an abrupt halt and then began to slowly approach the canoe.

Kar indicates that from this point on the conscious memories of the four men differ from one another. Charlie's next memory is of their paddling for shore and standing at the campsite with the others watching the object move away. Chuck remembers remaining in the canoe after the others piled out onto the shore in panic. He stood there transfixed, paddle in hand, unable to take his eyes from the object.

Jack and Jim Weiner were able to consciously remember more about the object, including the abnormal light beam that came out of the object. They all seemed to be in a state of suspended animation as they watched the object leave the area.

As they sat around the camp table, feeling very tired and somehow strange, they became aware that the large campfire they had lit 15 to 20 minutes before had completely burned down into glowing red coals. Being extremely exhausted, the four of them fell asleep right at the table. On awakening the next morning, they broke camp and continued on their journey. They flagged down a passing forest ranger and reported their UFO experience.

Although in the past they had faithfully kept trip notes and diaries, after their experience on the Allagash little more was written. This experience would remain a puzzle for years until Jim and Jack began to experience strange dreams and paranormal phenomena, which finally led Jim to the author, Ray Fowler.

Kar reports that in 1986, Jack started having recurring dreams where he was standing against a wall or an upright table in a place filled with a bright hazy light. He is fully awake and thinking but unable to move. He is aware of Jim, Chuck and Charlie sitting on a bench to his left and remembers thinking "why don't you guys do something", but they, like him, cannot speak or move.

After his physician encouraged him to undergo hypnotic regression, Jim contacted a local MIUFON consultant. Charlie, Chuck, and Jack were asked by Ray Fowler to seriously consider undergoing hypnotic regression also. They decided to see first how Jim would react to it. As the date drew near for Jim's regression, Fowler enlisted the help of David Webb who was one of the principal investigators of the Andreasson Affair. Webb, a solar physicist, is an expert on close encounters of the third kind (CEIII) as well as CEIV cases. MUFON consultant Tony Constantino was chosen to conduct the hypnotic regression sessions. Webb and Constantino were familiar with the experiences in Fowler's book, The Watchers.

Jim, Jack, Chuck and Charlie were regressed separately and told not to share with each other what came out of their individual sessions. Also, Mary (who had earlier CEIV experiences) was not to share her experiences with her husband Jim, nor was he to share his with her.

During their individual hypnotic regressions, each reported similar experiences on the UFO, including being led to a hazy room filled with extremely bright light. Each recalled sitting on a bench up against a wall, and that when it was their turn each was asked by the aliens (telepathically) to stand up, remove their clothes and walk to the table which was directly in front of the others who were still sitting on the bench waiting their turn. While being escorted to the table the men felt they were floating rather than walking. The procedures of the exam seemed to follow a pattern for the four in at least five of the following typical procedures:

- 1) Preparation - The beings make the witness ready for the exam.
- 2) Manual Exam - The beings touch or manipulate various parts of the body by hand or by using handheld instruments.
- 3) Scanning - The body is scanned by an eye-like instrument.
- 4) Instrumental Exam - Unusual looking instruments probe the body.
- 5) Samples - The beings take samples of blood or other body materials.
- 6) Reproductive Exam - Test are concerned with reproductive or genital organs.
- 7) Neurological Exam - Attention is given to the head, brain and nervous system as the beings explore the mind, brain, and nerves of the witness.
- 8) Behavioral Exam - The beings test and observe behavior and telepathically ask questions of the witness.

THE RETURN: The abduction experience ends with the abductees being brought back to familiar surroundings and the normal activities that they were doing before the abduction, seemingly not having been interrupted. In the case of the Allagash 4, as Charlie said: "They helped us into the canoe ... and said we were okay and that there was nothing to be afraid of and to go back to our place ... not to remember ... don't be troubled."

Sometimes, from time to time, we all experience something from the unknown. Our God knows, but we have not a clue as to what it was, and it bewilders us and forces us to do a reality check. We also find that we want to tell someone, anyone, maybe. But who? Do you have a story you want to tell, but do not want to be put on the front stage with all eyes looking at you? Do you get nervous meeting new friends and are fearful that they may think you to be strange and not all “there?” If you would like, please email me with your story. I will read it to see if it has interest for our readers, I may check for spelling and grammar then post it in our newsletter. I can leave your name off if you would like. But I want to hear from our readers.

QHHT Sessions - Top

If you are interested in doing a QHHT session, my current fee is $300 for the entire session. I only do one session per day so that there will be no rush to finish a session before it's natural completion. You will also find that my fees are at the low end of the scale among QHHT® practitioners, to make it more affordable. I'll send you some paperwork to be filled out when we schedule the appointment, then I may send a reminder one or two days prior to the session that will also include my address here in Spring Branch, Texas. Bring the paperwork with you and we can go over it when you get here. A belief in reincarnation is not a requirement for a QHHT® session. Your unconscious mind will take you to the most appropriate time and place in which your questions will be answered.

If you need to call or text me, to ask more questions, I will be more than happy to answer any questions you may have. If the call goes to voice mail, I will call back as soon as I am able. I am retired and hypnosis is the only “work” that I do, so if you need to call or text, do not hesitate. The session can last four to seven hours. This includes a two-hour discussion and a review of the questions you bring with you that you want your unconscious mind to answer, a one-to-two-hour hypnotic session that may include one to three past lives, answers to your questions by your unconscious mind, and a body scan by your unconscious mind. The session is videoed, and an audio file of the session is sent to you via Drop Box.

ABOUT - Top

This newsletter started out as a way to encourage others to meet and tell others of their paranormal experiences. I’ve also included a lot of my own experiences in the previous newsletters, but now, I believe it is time to include other subjects that will help a person to grow and heal, not only in the mind, but also in the body. After all, isn’t that what we all want, to have a healthy mind, body and spirit?

As I research the various topics that I find interesting, I will occasionally dip down into rabbit holes and find nuggets that were completely unexpected. Attending “The Healing Arts Festival & Market”, I also see where people are seeking alternative sources of healing rather than the allopathic medicine in which we have begun to shy away from due to the contraindications associated with their treatments when using questionable pharmaceuticals.

I have found, in my readings, therapies that include frequency, vibration and energy as well as red light therapy. Frequency could be associated with light and sound, as in the Singing Bowls that one may find at the Healing Arts Festival & Market. So, please expect more, and if you believe that I have veered off track and need to come back to center, please let me know. Feedback does help.

Man get's Selected to be a Judge At A Chili Cook-off. This is Hilarious

By Kera Osborne

If you can read this whole story without laughing, then there's no hope for you. I was crying by the end. This is an actual account as relayed to paramedics at a chili cook-off in New Mexico.

"Recently, I was honored to be selected as a judge at a chili cook-off. The original person called in sick at the last moment and I happened to be standing there at the judge's table, asking for directions to the Coors Light truck, when the call came in... I was assured by the other two judges (Native New Mexicans) that the chili wouldn't be all that spicy; and, besides, they told me I could have free beer during the tasting, so I accepted and became Judge 3."

Here are the scorecard notes from the event:

CHILI # 1 – MIKE'S MANIAC MONSTER CHILI

Judge # 1 — A little too heavy on the tomato. Amusing kick.

Judge # 2 — Nice, smooth tomato flavor. Very mild.

Judge # 3 (Frank) — Holy crap, what the hell is this stuff? You could remove dried paint from your driveway. Took me two beers to put the flames out. I hope that's the worst one. These New Mexicans are crazy.

CHILI # 2 – EL RANCHO’S AFTERBURNER CHILI

Judge # 1 — Smoky, with a hint of pork. Slight jalapeno tang.

Judge # 2 — Exciting BBQ flavor, needs more peppers to be taken seriously.

Judge # 3 — Keep this out of the reach of children. I’m not sure what I’m supposed to taste besides pain. I had to wave off two people who wanted to give me the Heimlich maneuver. They had to rush in more beer when they saw the look on my face.

CHILI # 3 – ALFREDO’S FAMOUS BURN DOWN THE BARN CHILI

Judge # 1 — Excellent firehouse chili. Great kick.

Judge # 2 — A bit salty, good use of peppers.

Judge # 3 — Call the EPA. I’ve located a uranium spill. My nose feels like I have been snorting Drano. Everyone knows the routine by now. Get me more beer before I ignite. Barmaid pounded me on the back, now my backbone is in the front part of my chest. I’m getting red-faced from all of the beer.

CHILI # 4=2 0- BUBBA’S BLACK MAGIC

Judge # 1 — Black bean chili with almost no spice. Disappointing.

Judge # 2 — Hint of lime in the black beans. Good side dish for fish or other mild foods, not much of a chili.

Judge # 3 — I felt something scraping across my tongue, but was unable to taste it. Is it possible to burn out taste buds? Sally, the beer maid, was standing behind me with fresh refills. This 300 lb. Woman is starting to look HOT ... Just like this nuclear waste I’m eating! Is chili an aphrodisiac?

CHILI # 5 – LISA’S LEGAL LIP REMOVER

Judge # 1 — Meaty, strong chili. Jalapeno peppers freshly ground, adding considerable kick. Very impressive.

Judge # 2 — Chili using shredded beef, could use more tomato. Must admit the jalapeno peppers make a strong statement.

Judge # 3 — My ears are ringing, sweat is pouring off my forehead and I can no longer focus my eyes. I farted, and four people behind me needed paramedics. The contestant seemed offended when I told her that her chili had given me brain damage. Sally saved my tongue from bleeding by pouring beer directly on it from the pitcher. I wonder if I’m burning my lips off. It really ticks me off that the other judges asked me to stop screaming.

CHILI # 6 – VARGA’S VERY VEGETARIAN VARIETY

Judge # 1 — Thin yet bold vegetarian variety chili. Good balance of spices and peppers.

Judge # 2 — The best yet. Aggressive use of peppers, onions, garlic. Superb.

Judge # 3 — My intestines are now a straight pipe filled with gaseous, sulfuric flames. I crapped on myself when I farted, and I’m worried it will eat through the chair. No one seems inclined to stand behind me except that Sally. Can’t feel my lips anymore. I need to wipe my butt with a snow cone.

CHILI # 7 – SUSAN’S SCREAMING SENSATION CHILI

Judge # 1 — A mediocre chili with too much reliance on canned peppers.

Judge # 2 — Ho hum, tastes as if the chef literally threw in a can of chili peppers at the last moment I should take note that I am worried about Judge # 3. He appears to be in a bit of distress as he is cursing uncontrollably.

Judge # 3 — You could put a grenade in my mouth, pull the pin, and I wouldn’t feel a thing. I’ve lost sight in one eye, and the world sounds like it is made of rushing water. My shirt is covered with chili, which slid unnoticed out of my mouth. My pants are full of lava to match my shirt. At least during the autopsy, they’ll know what killed me. I’ve decided to stop breathing. It’s too painful. I’m not getting any oxygen anyway. If I need air, I’ll just suck it in through the 4-inch hole in my stomach.

CHILI # 8 – BIG TOM’S TOENAIL CURLING CHILI

Judge # 1 — The perfect ending, this is a nice blend chili. Not too bold but spicy enough to declare its existence.

Judge # 2 — This final entry is a good, balanced chili. Neither mild nor hot. Sorry to see that most of it was lost when Judge # 3 farted, passed out, fell over and pulled the chili pot down on top of himself. Not sure if he’s going to make it. Poor fella, wonder how he’d have reacted to really hot chili?

Judge # 3 — No report.
