Ignorance Is a Choice

We all have choices to make each and every day. We hear some news or some reports that seem to be outrageous, yet, we have a choice, to believe it or not to believe it. If it goes against the teachings we have learned from our youth, isn’t it prudent to learn more about the subject to determine if it is credible?

People tend to choose to be ignorant because research takes time, and sometimes money. Knowledge needs to be sifted through and cross referenced to find the believable concrete truth. That knowledge may put you at odds with your friends and co-workers, and possibly ruin careers, to be ostracized from family, friends, and churches. Knowledge is indeed a two-edged sword.

Let’s look at a few examples. Royal Raymond Rife, Nikola Tesla, Giordano Bruno, and Stanley Meyer.

As you read and research the likes of Rife, Tesla, Bruno, and Meyer, you’ll also find that there were many, many others whose ideas were outside the conventional thinking and paid the price with their lives, their reputation, their financial means, etc. When one begins to learn and believe truths that are not accepted by the mainstream, one’s personal safety may be at risk. It is very dangerous to go against the Powers That Be when their power and wealth may be at risk because of the truth.

However, all that being said, I want to know the truth and embrace it. To study. To think about it. To mull it over. To accept it and make it my own.

The Exciting Paranormal??

Some people, who have never seen the paranormal, truly want to see it and experience it. But do they really? The paranormal can be terrifying and most people are ill prepared to come face to face with something outside their acknowledged experiences. Having seen many things in my own lifetime, I acknowledge the UFOs, the alien abduction phenomenon, ghosts, shadow people, and voices in my head predicting future events. All these things can be both unsettling and, at times, terrifying.

A few examples.

High School, Pleasanton, Texas, early 1970s. I had just laid down for the night when I had a strong feeling, or urging, that I needed to look outside the bedroom window. When I did, I came face-to-face with an unearthly entity that scared me so much that when I told mom and dad about it, they called the Sheriff who came out to investigate. The entity was not found but evidence had been found that there had been something there.

Over the years, I can still see that face and my rational mind still tries to make sense of who or what I had seen. But in my mind, I can come to no other conclusion that what I had seen was an unearthly entity.

Russellville, Arkansas. During the years I had worked at Arkansas Nuclear One, in my house on Gum Lane, I had seen and been attacked by what others had described as the Shadow People. Entities so dark and black that there can be no discernment of depth in their facial features. Several times these entities would come into my room and disturb my sleep. Some attacking me and my only defense was in the name of Jesus. When I called for Jesus, as I was being attacked, the attacker would immediately vanish. Another time, an entity was waking me up and, not knowing who was there, I immediately took a swing at him, and he vanished completely. Another time, while visiting my brother, a shadow person woke me up from a very deep sleep. Its face was inches from mine as it pushed on my left shoulder. And just like the others, it vanished completely.

Bertram, Texas. Kay and I hadn't been married for long, when I woke up and found myself in a state of sleep paralysis. I could only make a slight noise that woke Kay up and she was able to bring me out of sleep paralysis. She asked me had happened, and I told her that I was being chased by 5 or 7 little gray aliens. They had chased me into what looked like a storage room. She told me it was all a dream, that I had been there the whole night. With that, I got up, used the restroom then came back to bed. When I went to sleep, the "dream" continued. I found myself on an examination table with a tall gray looking down on me. I was not fearful. The alien apparently knew what he was going to be doing.

Another event in Bertram was the night I had gotten stung by a "scorpion", in bed, in a deep sleep. I was "stung" by something. I don't know what it was. We did not find a scorpion in the bed or any other stinging insect. The initial pain was with me for a very long time as well as the numbness that still is found in my left thigh all the way to my knee.

Spring Branch, Texas. Kay and I had just moved into our home in Spring Branch. One night we had gone to sleep. I woke up in the middle of the night to use the restroom. When coming back to bed, I noticed a girl of about 12 years old leaning up against my chest of drawers. She had long brown hair that came to the middle of her butt. She wore an old fashion night gown with sleeves down to her wrists, a collar up to her chine and the length to the floor covering her feet. I was not afraid. I did not see her face. She seemed to be staring at the bed for some reason. I told Kay about it the next day, and I told her that all could do was go back to bed. It was almost as though I had no control of what I did at that time. But I was to go to bed and go back to sleep.

Many times, we associate the paranormal with a light in the sky. A distant light. Not one up close. But the paranormal, at least in my life, has touched me ways that I would have never considered before. Now these are not the only times I have seen that paranormal. Here is a partial list of some of the things that have “touched” me:

Michigan - Entity coming into my room as a child.

Michigan - Five or seven gray aliens coming out of my closet.

Kansas – Lights in the sky making 90-degree angles

Houston, Texas – Lights in the sky above us as we were “camping” in the backyard

Houston, Texas – Bloody nose after the camp out in the backyard

Austin, Texas – People dancing around a bon fire I had seen while I was driving home, my parents could see the fright in my face when I got home and wanted to see the bon fire. When we got there, it was completely gone. No fire. No people dancing. No smoke.

And there are so many more examples in my adult life. These examples are some from my childhood. But I get tired of listing them.

So, do you like to be frightened? Probed? Find scars on your body that were not there the night before? Seeing entities looking through your bedroom window at night? Being attacked by the shadow people? Taken aboard an alien ship to be cut on and injected with implants? Does this sound exciting?

Going to a county fair, or place of safe entertainment is fun. Maybe seeing moving lights in the night sky is fun. But none of it is fun when they touch you and hurt you.

Am I saying that ALL aliens are evil? No, I am not. I had an encounter with a Blue Avian this past year. I was not in the least bit fearful when “she” came up to me. I saw her in my twilight sleep. She walked straight through Kay when she came up to me and kissed me on my left cheek. It was very memorable.

The paranormal IS my normal.

The 1950s

It was the best of times; It was the worst of times. Charles Dickens’ – “A Tale of Two Cities.”

Today, I was wondering when and why I have had so many paranormal experiences in my life. While reading, IANDS, International Association for Near-Death Studies, I had come across some interesting information that may be a clue.

1953, Carl was born. A little boy who was very curious concerning the world in which he lived. He wanted to explore all things in his environment, sometimes to his detriment. I'm still a little fuzzy about the timeline here, so bear with me. I was somewhere between three and four years old when the following happened.

Being the adventurous child that I was, I remembered that mom always put her purse on top of the icebox back then, away from my reach. They were called iceboxes when I was a child, although it did have a cooling system in them rather than a block of ice. The one we had was also quite short, in comparison to today's refrigerators, so when I pushed the kitchen chair up next to the icebox, I was able to easily pull mom's purse down from on high. I was about three years old at the time. She also had gum and candy in her purse, and that, I believe, was what I was looking for.

In her purse, apparently, I found a bottle of pills, Dexedrine, that she was prescribed for weight loss, as the story goes. I was too young at that time to figure it all out. And, apparently, I was told that I ate the whole bottle, although I do not remember doing so. I did, however, remember having the pills around me as I was sitting on my bed. I do remember some of the ride to the hospital and my older sister, Connie, asking my mother. "Is Carl going to die? "I hope not", said mom.

At the hospital, I remember my stomach being pumped, at least one time, although I was also told it was pumped two or three times. And I remember spending some time in the hospital. I told my mother in my later years that I didn't remember spending any time in the hospital. She said that I was a wild man, that they had to put a net over my crib to keep me in and that I had torn the net off twice. I do not know at all if I had a near-death experience at that time, but this period in my life was very close to when the Angel, later, had come into my room and had given me a message. This event probably happened after the hospital event.

Please read, IANDS, International Association for Near-Death Studies, to get more information on a Pattern of Aftereffects, Major Characteristics of Psychological Changes, and Major Characteristics of Physiological Changes.

I do know that when I was five years old and living in Coloma, Michigan, that is when the gray aliens first came to give me a visit. It was not a good one, nor was I a happy camper.

The paranormal visitations still occur, and I do not know if they have decreased or stayed the same. Many times, during the night hours, and upon awakening, I have a sense that something had happened that I am not aware of in a waking state.

The Pentagon UFO Unit Says It Has Found "Off-World Vehicles" That Are "Not Made On This Earth"

Posted on 10/11/2022 by EraOfLight — 3 Comments ↓

For decades, disclosure has been one of, if not the most talked about topics in the UFO and alien community.

Now, it's happening right before our very eyes, and most of us seem to be oblivious to the magnitude of what is actually going on.

A consultant for the Pentagon U.F.O program is speaking out about retrievals from “off-world vehicles not made on this earth.”

Eric W. Davis, an astrophysicist who worked as a subcontractor and then a consultant for the Pentagon U.F.O. program since 2007 told the New York Times he gave a classified briefing to a Defense Department agency as recently as March about the alleged “off-world” vehicles. He also gave classified briefings on retrievals of unexplained objects to staff members of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate Intelligence Committee last October.

Instead, it has been mostly cast aside as an afterthought in a time of coronavirus hysteria.

The briefing focused on what Davis called “off-world vehicles not made on this Earth.”

In other words, Davis, who spent years working as a consultant for the Pentagon UFO program and now works as a defense contractor, has officially spilled the beans: spaceships, aka UFOs, are real, and it's something we have most likely known about for a very long time.

Davis said that in some cases he had failed to determine the source of recovered materials, leading him to conclude, “We couldn't make it ourselves.”

UFO Program “No Longer Has to Hide in the Shadows”
Davis's bombshell quote came in the latest UFO report from the New York Times, which has owned the beat for the past several years according to a report from NYMag.com.

In December 2017, a paper reported on the existence of the Advanced Aerospace Threat Identification

Program, an effort by the Pentagon to investigate UFOs that was supposedly ended in 2012.

Hailed as a “historical inflection point in our attitudes regarding UFOs,” it implied the same message as the most recent one; that is to say that UFOs are in fact real and they are not from this Earth as many skeptics have claimed.

Though the Pentagon had said it disbanded a program to investigate unidentified flying objects, the Times reported that investigations into encounters between military pilots and unidentified aerial vehicles continue under a renamed program — the Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon Task Force — inside the Office of Naval Intelligence. While the program is not classified, it deals with classified matters.

A Senate committee report last month said the program was to “standardize collection and reporting” on sightings of unexplained aerial vehicles. The program was ordered to report at least some of its findings to the public within 180 days after the passing of the intelligence authorization act.

It is now moving up to a whole new era of “transparency,” according to Luis Elizondo, the ex-director of its predecessor program.

“It no longer has to hide in the shadows,” he said.

Known as the Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon Task Force, it is now obligated to make further reports public.

Will Task Force Ever Present Physical Proof?

While the announcement is still being digested by most people, the time is now to buckle up for Round Two: further announcements and reports are expected to be released in the coming weeks, months, and years, as more and more findings are made public.

The big question is whether or not physical evidence will be presented, in the form of an actual craft, or perhaps even artifacts or instruments from other worlds, spaceships and even alien beings themselves.

Elizondo, who took over the lead position of the Defense Department’s UFO program in 2010, is “among a small group of former government officials and scientists with security clearances who, without presenting physical proof, say they are convinced that objects of undetermined origin have crashed on earth with materials retrieved for study.”

The program was started about a decade ago and budgeted at $22 million according to the Times. It went by AATIP, for Advanced Aviation Threat Identification Program, and has also been referred to as the Advanced Aerospace Threat Identification Program.

10 Historic Paintings That Clearly Show UFOs

Many ancient wall paintings are said to show flying objects and visitors from outer space. But these images also appear in classic, commissioned pieces of art—particularly those that depict divine events. Is there a genuine connection between the divine and alien activity? According to a cadre of believers, these 10 classic pieces of artwork clearly show UFOs.

12 Ancient Paintings Containing Surprising Evidence of Aliens

Sci-fi has been around since just after the dawn of humankind – or, if you believe in ancient astronauts, sci-fi has been around since slightly before the dawn of man. We have to admit, it's a lot harder to disbelieve the notion that something otherworldly once walked among us after looking at these ancient paintings of just that.

Here are a dozen spectacularly cool drawings that featured elements of sci-fi before the concept of “little green men.”

Newsletter Input - Top

Sometimes, from time to time, we all experience something from the unknown. Our God knows, but we have not a clue as to what it was, and it bewilders us and forces us to do a reality check. We also find that we want to tell someone, anyone, maybe. But who? Do you have a story you want to tell, but do not want to be put on the front stage with all eyes looking at you? Do you get nervous meeting new friends and are fearful that they may think you to be strange and not all

“there?” If you would like, please email me with your story. I will read it to see if it has interest for our readers, I may check for spelling and grammar then post it in our newsletter. I can leave your name off if you would like. But I want to hear from our readers.

QHHT Sessions - Top

If you are interested in doing a QHHT session, my current fee is $300 for the entire session. I only do one session per day so that there will be no rush to finish a session before it's natural completion. You will also find that my fees are at the low end of the scale among QHHT® practitioners, to make it more affordable. I'll send you some paperwork to be filled out when we schedule the appointment, then I may send a reminder one or two days prior to the session that will also include my address here in Spring Branch, Texas. Bring the paperwork with you and we can go over it when you get here. A belief in reincarnation is not a requirement for a QHHT® session. Your unconscious mind will take you to the most appropriate time and place in which your questions will be answered.

If you need to call or text me, to ask more questions, I will be more than happy to answer any questions you may have. If the call goes to voice mail, I will call back as soon as I am able. I am retired and hypnosis is the only “work” that I do, so if you need to call or text, do not hesitate. The session can last four to seven hours. This includes a two-hour discussion and a review of the questions you bring with you that you want your unconscious mind to answer, a one-to-two-hour hypnotic session that may include one to three past lives, answers to your questions by your unconscious mind, and a body scan by your unconscious mind. The session is videoed, and an audio file of the session is sent to you via Drop Box.

ABOUT - Top

This newsletter started out as a way to encourage others to meet and tell others of their paranormal experiences. I've also included a lot of my own experiences in the previous newsletters, but now, I believe it is time to include other subjects that will help a person to grow and heal, not only in the mind, but also in the body. After all, isn't that what we all want, to have a healthy mind, body and spirit?

As I research the various topics that I find interesting, I will occasionally dip down into rabbit holes and find nuggets that were completely unexpected. Attending “The Healing Arts Festival & Market”, I also see where people are seeking alternative sources of healing rather than the allopathic medicine in which we have begun to shy away from due to the contraindications associated with their treatments when using questionable pharmaceuticals.

I have found, in my readings, therapies that include frequency, vibration and energy as well as red light therapy. Frequency would be associated with light and sound, as in the Singing Bowls that one may find at the Healing Arts Festival & Market. So, please expect more, and if you believe that I have veered off track and need to come back to center, please let me know. Feedback does help.

Remote Hypnosis Sessions

I do not make any money when someone clicks on the links, and or buys a book. The only money I make is from doing hypnosis.

After having several inquiries as to whether or not I do remote sessions, the answer is, NO! I do not do remote hypnosis over Zoom, Skype or any other telecommunication means. I want to be able to see the client's eyes and determine the depth of trance they are in, and it cannot be done when watching a screen. It has to be in person.

When calling to make an appointment, the caller must be the one who is wanting the session. I need to talk with the potential client, because the client will need to acknowledge that they desire the Hypnosis Session and are willing to follow directions to be led into hypnosis.
